

the provisions of the Act of 1892, Chapter 418, and of the Act of 1900, Chapter 102, are hereby continued in force until such accounts are settled and closed as aforesaid.

1906, ch. 171, sec. 4. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 155.

224. After the expiration of two years from the date of any sale of real estate heretofore or hereafter to be made by any of the tax collectors of Montgomery County, or by any trustee appointed by the Circuit Court for Montgomery County to complete the collection of any such collector, the treasurer, provided such sale has been duly ratified by said court, and the lands so sold has not been redeemed under the provisions of the existing laws, shall at the request and cost of the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, convey the lands so sold by a good and sufficient deed to him or them.

See sec. 212.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 16, sec. 65. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 156.

225. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners to publish, in their annual exhibit of receipts and expenditures, the amount of monies received from the sheriff of said county as costs collected by him in criminal cases; also the amount of monies remaining in the hands of said commissioners as unexpended balances due pensioners who have died during the year, for which such pensioners were allowed; also the amount of moneys repaid from other counties for monies expended in the trial of cases removed from such counties for trial in the Circuit Court for Montgomery County; also the amount of monies remaining in the hands of the commissioners over and above what has been actually required to pay the existing creditors of the county.

TURNPIKE COMPANIES.

1892, ch. 455, sec. 1. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 158.

226. Whenever two-fifths of the capital stock of any turnpike company in Montgomery County, chartered and organized from and after the passage of this Act shall have been subscribed for and taken by responsible bona fide stockholders, the county commissioners of said county are hereby authorized and empowered to subscribe for such portion of the remaining three-fifths of the capital stock as they, in their discretion, may deem proper in the name and for the benefit of said county, and shall be entitled to be represented at all meetings of the stockholders of said company by the county commissioners for the time being, or by such person or persons as may be duly authorized by them provided said roads or roads so subscribed to shall be graded for a width of twenty feet, fourteen of which shall be covered with stone of an average depth of nine inches; provided also, that in accordance with the provisions of Article three, section fifty-four, of the Constitution, secs. 226 and 227 of this Article shall be published in the newspapers printed in said county for two months before the next election for members of the House of Delegates, and shall also be approved by a majority of all the members elected to each House of the General Assembly of Maryland at its next session after said election.