

after such hearing shall have the right to appeal therefrom within ten days to the Circuit Court of Montgomery County.

Any tax so assessed, as above provided in this section, shall be payable to the County Treasurer in from four to ten semi-annual installments, as nearly equal as may be, the first installment thereof to become due and payable within six months after the levy of said special tax as above provided, and each of the other said installments within six months after the preceding one shall have become due; each installment of said tax shall become a lien against said abutting property and shall bear interest from the date of levy thereof at the rate of six per centum per annum until paid; or said tax may be paid in full without interest during the first installment period, and if any of said installments thereof be not paid within thirty days after same shall have become due, the entire amount of said tax assessed to the person or persons or corporation in default, with interest, shall thereupon become due and payable, and may be collected in the same manner provided in the Act for the collection of unpaid taxes. And the said Drummond Citizens' Committee shall have the power to prescribe the number of semi-annual installments in which the tax so assessed, as above provided, shall be payable.

All moneys so received by said County Treasurer shall, upon order of said Board of County Commissioners, be paid over to the Treasurer of said Village of Drummond, and the said Drummond Citizens' Committee shall become charged with the duty of paving, grading, macadamizing or otherwise improving said streets, roads, lanes or sidewalks within said village.

For the purpose of making the improvements provided for in this section, the said Drummond Citizens' Committee is hereby authorized and empowered to borrow money and otherwise contract indebtedness and obligate said Village of Drummond in an amount not exceeding at any time ten per centum of the assessed valuation of the real property within said village, and for this purpose said Village of Drummond shall be and hereby is constituted a corporation, and the said Drummond Citizens' Committee is empowered to act for said corporation; provided, that should there be default on bonds or other indebtedness incurred by the said Citizens' Committee of the said Village of Drummond for the said village, it shall be the duty of the Board of County Commissioners of Montgomery County to levy or have levied special general taxes against the real property of said Village of Drummond to the extent only that such default bonds or incurred indebtedness shall be liquidated.

296. Any member of the Drummond Citizens' Committee may be removed by the Board of County Commissioners upon the charge of malfeasance or misfeasance in office, preferred by a member of said Committee, after due notice of said charge and opportunity has been given in defence thereof, and a hearing to be fixed therefor. The said Treasurer and other officers of said Village of Drummond shall hold their offices or
