

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 16, sec. 72. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 199.

302. The judges and clerks of election in said county shall each be entitled to the sum of three dollars per day, for every election at which they shall respectively attend and act as judges or clerks, and for making returns of said elections.

See Art. 33 of Annotated Code for general election laws.

1927, ch. 251, sec. 1.

303. All that portion of the Tenth Election District of Montgomery County as heretofore constituted, included within the following lines, limits and boundaries in this section mentioned, is hereby annexed to and constituted a part of the Seventh Election District of Montgomery County: Beginning for the same where the Cabin John Creek empties into the Potomac River and running thence up said river to a point at which a branch empties into same from Bridge No. 3 on the Conduit Road; thence up said Branch in a Northerly direction to the Conduit Road; thence in an Easterly direction along the Conduit Road to the County Road leading to the Congressional Country Club; thence with said road in a Northerly direction to the Southwest corner of the lands of Bessie L. Edmondston; thence along the Southern boundary of said land to the Southeast corner; thence along the East boundary of said lands to the Northeast corner of said lands; thence in a Northeasterly direction two thousand five hundred and seventy (2,570) feet, more or less, to a stone on the East side of the Seven Locks Road, it being the Northernmost point on the lands of the American Land Company's property; thence in a Southeasterly direction two hundred eighty-four (284) feet to a stone on the bank of the Cabin John Creek; thence with the meander of the said creek to its mouth at the Potomac River.

1927, ch. 251, sec. 2.

304. The assessable property located within the boundaries described in the above section shall continue to be liable for the payment of bonds and the interest thereon heretofore issued against the assessable property located within the Tenth Election District of Montgomery County, but that said property shall not be liable for and shall not be assessed for the payment of bonds and the interest thereon, heretofore issued against the assessable property located within the Seventh Election District of Montgomery County.

1927, ch. 483, sec. 1.

305. The Board of Supervisors of Election of Montgomery County is hereby authorized to change the boundaries of the existing three precincts of the Seventh Election District of Montgomery County for the purpose of creating a fourth precinct in said Seventh Election District; and is authorized to change the boundaries of the second precinct of the Thirteenth Election District; to create an additional precinct to be known as Precinct No. 5 of the Thirteenth District from territory now entirely within the second precinct of the Thirteen District of said Montgomery County.
