

an insufficient amount for the ensuing year, or any succeeding year, then and in that event the said Committee, or resident, taxpayers of said villages affected by this Act, may, on or before April 15, 1914, or any succeeding year, petition in writing the County Commissioners of Montgomery County to make an additional special levy and tax of not more than ten cents on each one hundred ($100) dollars of the assessable value of said real and personal property in said villages, such petition to be signed by the majority of said Committee, or such number of resident taxpayers as may satisfy said County Commissioners of the fact that there is a general public demand on the part of the residents, citizens and taxpayers of said villages for such additional special levy and such special tax for such purposes as hereinbefore mentioned, but no such special levy of such additional special tax shall be made on such property, unless notice of the intention of said County Commissioners to make such additional special levy, the purpose or purposes thereof and the amount thereof and approximate effect of such additional special levy on the tax rate of said villages shall be published in one or more newspapers of said County for two consecutive weeks, designating the date upon which said County Commissioners shall meet for the purpose of hearing objections to said additional special levy; and upon the date fixed for such hearing, said Commissioners shall hear the advocates and opponents of such additional special levy and thereafter determine the amount, if any, of such additional special levy for said villages, but in no case shall said additional special levy be greater than ten cents on each one hundred ($100) dollars of the assessable value of real and personal property, as aforesaid, in any one year.

334. From and after the passage of this Act until the second Monday in May, 1923, the "Friendship Heights Citizens' Committee" for the Villages of "Friendship Heights" and "The Hills" shall be constituted as follows: Claude W. Woodward, Henry W. Offutt, Charles E. Roach, Charles W. Rippey, John A. P. Farnham, George W. Offutt, Jr., and Emory H. Bogley. The first named shall, until otherwise directed by said Committee, be and constitute the Chairman thereof, each of whom shall qualify as such Committeemen by taking oath to diligently and faithfully discharge the duties of the office, but that upon the failure of any one or more of said Committeemen named in this Act to qualify on or before the 20th day of May, 1922, such position shall be taken and regarded as vacant, and shall be filled by appointment by the Board of County Commissioners of Montgomery County within ten days after the 20th day of May, 1922. On the second Monday in May in the year 1923, and on the same date in every second year thereafter, an election shall be held in the said Villages for the election of seven members, each of whom shall be a resident taxpayer upon real or personal property situate in said Villages, to be and constitute the "Friendship Heights Citizens' Committee" for the next succeeding two years, and until their successors duly qualify, each of whom shall qualify on or before the fourth Monday in
