

P. L. L. (1888), art. 1, sec. 34. 1860, art. 1, sec. 16. 1900, ch. 25. 1904, ch. 169.

100. At the general election of county officers of Allegany County, to be held in said county, November, 1905,* and every four years thereafter, a clerk to the Board of County Commissioners shall be elected by the qualified voters of said county, who shall hold the office of clerk for the term of four years from the time of his election and qualification or until his successor is elected and qualified, and shall be subject to removal from said office for any wilful neglect of duty or misbehavior in office at any time by the County Commissioners of said county; said clerk shall be paid for his services the sum of twelve hundred dollars per annum, payable in sums of one hundred dollars at the expiration of each and every month, by the Treasurer of Allegany County, from the funds of said county; and said clerk, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall give bond to the County Commissioners of Allegany County in the sum of five thousand dollars for the faithful discharge of his duties.

1918, ch. 43. 1927, ch. 14.

101. In addition to the salary provided by Section 100, the Clerk to the Board of County Commissioners for Allegany County shall be entitled to receive such extra compensation or salary as may be determined by the Board of County Commissioners, not to exceed, however, the sum of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200.00) per annum, in addition to the salary provided by Section 100, if the said Board of County Commissioners for Allegany County shall deem it necessary and proper to pay the said Clerk any extra salary or compensation, the amount of such extra compensation or salary, as above mentioned, and the time and method of its payment to be determined by the said Board of County Commissioners for Allegany County.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 1, sec. 35. 1860, art. 1, sec. 17.

102. The said clerk shall also, before one of said commissioners, take and subscribe the following oath: "I, A. B., do swear that as Clerk to the County Commissioners of Allegany County, I will honestly and faithfully, to the best of my skill and judgment, execute the duties of said office, without favor, affection, prejudice or partiality, so help me God."

P. L. L. (1888), art. 1, sec. 36. 1880, ch. 397.

103. He shall be entitled to such compensation as shall be fixed by the County Commissioners, and he shall have power to administer oaths to all road supervisors who come before said Commissioners to settle their accounts, touching the fairness and truth of such accounts, and to all persons who come before said commissioners to make transfers, or ask for rebates or reductions, or other changes in assessments on the assessment books of said county, and shall have power to take affidavits to all papers to be filed in the office of said Commissioners.

*Under Art. 17 of the Md. Constitution elections for County officers are now held in even numbered years.
