

any officer, official or officials of Montgomery County, shall be published in more than two newspapers regarded as Montgomery County newspapers of general circulation in Montgomery County. Provided that only the delinquent tax report, election notice, and sample ballot may be printed in not more than three newspapers regarded as Montgomery County papers and having a general circulation in Montgomery County. And be it further provided that the delinquent tax report for any particular group of election districts of Montgomery County not exceeding three may be printed in any paper regarded as a County paper and having general circulation in the County which is not authorized to print the entire list of delinquent taxes for the County.

1927, ch. 497, sec. 2.

666. Any officer or official authorizing the publication of any report, notice, return, schedule, list of delinquent taxpayers or any official publication, in violation of the preceding section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars for each violation, and to be recoverable before the Police Justice or the Circuit Court of Montgomery County.

OAKMONT.

1918, ch. 190, sec. 1.

667. For the purpose of this Act the subdivision of Oakmont, of Montgomery County, Maryland, bounded as per plat recorded among the Land Records of said Montgomery County, shall constitute a special tax area or district.

1918, ch. 190, sec. 2

668. The Board of County Commissioners of Montgomery County are authorized, empowered and directed to levy and cause to be collected from the property owners at the time of the county tax levy for the year 1918, and each succeeding year within said area of Oakmont as created by this Act, amounts to be fixed by them not less than ten (10) cents nor more than fifty (50) cents on each one hundred (100) dollars' worth of assessable property in said subdivision of Oakmont, Montgomery County, to be collected as other county taxes in said county are collected; to be paid over by the said Board of County Commissioners to the Treasurer of said Oakmont subdivision to be selected from among their number by a majority of the members of the Oakmont Citizens' Committee of said Oakmont subdivision, or by their successors to be selected as herein provided. Upon said Treasurer having been duly selected by such Committee and giving bond to said Board of County Commissioners, to be approved by the Judge of the Circuit Court for Montgomery County in a penal sum to be fixed by the said Judge, conditioned upon faithful discharge of the duties of said Treasurer, the said Board of County Commissioners shall also order and have paid over to the said Treasurer the proportion of the county