

road tax to be levied and collected in the same manner as though said subdivision of Oakmont was an incorporated town, and said subdivision of Oakmont shall for that purpose be considered by said Board of County Commissioners as an incorporated town of said county; and said proportion of the county road tax received by the Treasurer of the Oakmont subdivision shall be used by the Oakmont Citizens' Committee exclusively for the maintaining and repairing of streets and lanes within said Oakmont subdivision that may have been dedicated to the public or to Montgomery County and whether accepted by said county or not; all other funds to be used by the said Oakmont Citizens' Committee directly or through said Committee exclusively for maintaining, repairing, lighting the streets, roads, alleys, sidewalks, parking, sanitation and other maintenance and upkeep of existing improvements, and for enforcing such regulations as said Citizens' Committee may prescribe for said Oakmont subdivision, or any part of said section thereof.

669. The said Oakmont Citizens' Committee shall be constituted as follows: Oliver Owen Kuhn, Charles A. Read and James C. Adkins, who shall serve until the qualification of the committeemen to be elected in April, 1919, as herein provided, and vacancies therein shall be filled by the remaining committeemen as hereinafter provided, the first shall, until otherwise directed by said committee, be and constitute the chairman thereof, each of whom shall qualify as such committeeman by taking an oath before any officer of said Montgomery County authorized by law to administer oaths to diligently and faithfully discharge all duties of the office. In case any such persons shall fail to qualify within ten days after the passage of this Act, or any of their successors shall fail to qualify within ten days after his election as committeeman as hereinafter provided, or in case of any vacancy through death, resignation, removal from said Oakmont subdivision, or otherwise, the remaining committeemen shall fill such vacancy by appointment of a bona fide property holder and taxpayer, who shall hold office until the next election as hereinafter provided.

On the second Tuesday in April, 1919, three members of the said Citizens' Committee shall be elected, one to serve one year, one to serve for two years and one member to serve three years. On the second Tuesday in April, 1920, and on the second Tuesday in April of each following year, an election shall be held at which a committeeman shall be elected to succeed the committeeman whose term has expired, and at which committeemen shall be elected to fill such vacancies as may exist, but the committeemen so elected to fill such vacancies shall serve only for the remainder of the unexpired term. Election shall be by ballot in a manner prescribed by the said Citizens' Committee. Only those residents who have been property holders and taxpayers in said Oakmont subdivision shall be entitled to vote or hold the office of Committeeman. Following each election each newly elected member of the said Citizens' Committee
