

1927, ch. 299, sec. 6.

696. All uniforms, equipment, automobiles or motorcycles purchased under this Act shall be and remain the property of the County, and shall be returned by the members of the police force to whom the said equipment may be issued upon separation for any cause from said force.

1927, ch. 299, sec. 7.

697. The County Commissioners are hereby authorized, directed and empowered to maintain in the town of Rockville, Montgomery County, an office for the chief of the Montgomery County Police and for the storage of all records and equipment necessary for the conduct of said police, said office to be known as and designated as "Headquarters of the Montgomery County Force," and at which Headquarters a member of the Montgomery County Police force shall always be on duty, and to maintain sub-stations, at which at least one member of the said force shall be on duty at all times, in such building or buildings as the said County Commissioners may designate, one of said sub-stations to be located in or near the town of Bethesda, and on or near the Georgetown-Rockville Turnpike or Wisconsin Avenue Extended, and one sub-station to be located in or near the town of Silver Spring on or near the Brookeville Turnpike or Georgia Avenue Extended, provided that a member of the Montgomery County Police Force shall be stationed within the municipal limits of the Town of Kensington. The County Commissioners are authorized, directed and empowered to spend such sums as may be necessary for the maintenance and equipment of said headquarters and sub-stations.

1927, ch. 299, sec. 8.

698. All fees, costs and charges in any and all criminal and civil cases allowed constables under local or General Laws of this State and County, paid over to any member of the County Police force, shall be paid forthwith by said member to the County Commissioners of Montgomery County, and the members of said police force shall not receive by way of fees, costs, or otherwise any sum or sums other than such as are authorized by this Act.

1927, ch. 299, sec. 9.

699. It shall be the duty of the members of the police force so appointed to serve and execute any and all writs, warrants, and subpoenas and other papers issued by the Circuit Court, for Montgomery County or the Justices of the Peace or the Police Justice or Justices for Montgomery County, in the exercise of its or their criminal jurisdiction; and no member of the said force shall receive any additional compensation for such services, and the members of the police force so appointed shall have all of the powers possessed by deputy sheriffs of the State of Maryland under the general law of the State, or the local laws of Montgomery County heretofore in existence, in so far as such powers are in reference to the criminal jurisdiction of said deputy sheriffs in making arrests, or in any manner enforcing the law, or laws of the State of Maryland.
