

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 16, sec. 176. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 447. 1916, ch. 42.

744. Any person who shall recklessly shoot along any public road or highway, or on the streets of any town or village, in Montgomery County, thereby causing injury to persons, stock or vehicles, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, before a justice of the peace, shall at the discretion of said justice be subject to a fine of not less than five dollars and costs for each offense; the fine shall be doubled in every instance if the offense be committed in the night, or on Sunday; and the offender shall be committed to the County Jail, until discharged by due process of law. Any person who shall deposit, place or leave in, or upon any public highway, or on any of the streets of any town or village in Montgomery County, any glass, crockery, nails, tacks, tin or iron cuttings, hoops, wagon tires, or other article or thing, liable to wound or injure man or beast or cause damage to any vehicle, or to any personal property, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, before a justice of the peace, shall at the discretion of said justice, be subject to a fine of not less than ten dollars, and costs for each offense; and the offender shall be committed to the County Jail, until such fine and costs are paid, or until discharged by due process of law.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 16, sec. 177. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 448.

745. It shall be the duty of every teamster or driver of any wagon, carriage, cart or other vehicle, drawn by a horse or mule, to remain with the same whilst traveling on any turnpike or public road in Montgomery County, or through the streets of any incorporated city or town in said county, so as at all times to have the horse attached to the same under his control; and any teamster or driver leaving the same whilst traveling on such turnpike, road or street shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction before a justice of the peace, shall be fined not exceeding twenty dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding thirty days, or both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

1898, ch. 133. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 449. 1912, ch. 108. 1918, ch. 230.

746. The Board of County Commissioners of Montgomery County shall annually make a general levy of an amount not exceeding thirty-five dollars ($35.00) per mile for the repair of the dirt roads in said county, the said amount, when collected, to be apportioned to the several election districts according to the mileage of county dirt roads in each of said election districts, and in computing said election district mileage each election district shall be credited with one-half of the mileage of all county dirt roads constituting boundary lines between it and other election districts. And said County Commissioners shall also annually make a general levy of an amount not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300.00) per mile for the repairs to macadam or other permanently improved roads with which the county is charged with the duty and expense of maintenance, said amount, when collected, to be apportioned to the several election districts according to the mileage of such macadam or other permanently improved roads,
