

upon the property of the several election districts so voting in proportion to the respective interests of each of such election districts in such road or toll pike as nearly as such interest may be ascertained by said county commissioners; but if it shall appear that a majority of the votes cast in one or more election districts shall be for such a resolution of said county commissioners so providing for the issue of special improvement bonds for such procurement and improvement of a road or toll pike lying partly in several election districts, and that a majority of the votes cast in one or more of the election districts in which said road or toll pike also lies shall be against such resolution of said county commissioners, then and in that event, the said resolution of said county commissioners shall become operative in their discretion, either as to the whole or any part of such special improvement and such special improvement bond issue provided herein, for the procurement and improvement of a road or toll pike lying partly in two or more election districts; any bonds issued under the provisions of this section shall be non-contestable for any cause; the county commissioners shall appoint three judges of elections and two clerks for each of such election districts so voting on such special improvements resolutions of said county commissioner for such special election, each of whom shall be taxpayers and shall qualify by taking the following oaths respectively: "I, A. B., do swear or affirm that I will permit all persons to vote who shall offer to vote at the special election now to be held for ——— district in Montgomery county, whose name shall appear in the list of voters furnished to me as required by law, as qualified voters under the Constitution and laws of this State, who are also taxpayers, within the meaning of the law under which this special election is to be held, and that I will not permit any person to vote at said election whose name shall not be found upon the said list of qualified voters, and that I will not permit any person to vote at said election whose name shall be upon the list of qualified voters who is not a taxpayer within the meaning of the act under which this special election is to be held, and I will in all things execute the office of judge of the said election according to the best of my knowledge without fear or partiality, so help me God." "I, A. B., do swear or affirm that I will well and faithfully, without fear or affection, or partiality, execute the office of clerk of the special election now to be held according to the best of my knowledge, so help me God." The treasurer of said county shall furnish to said judges of such special election in such election district in which such special election is to be held, for their use and information, a list of the names of the taxpayers of such election district appearing upon the records of his office and shall attach thereto a certificate over his official signature showing that the same is a full and correct list of such taxpayers in such election district; said treasurer shall also prepare from the records of the Board of Election Supervisors of said county, a correct list of the registered voters of such election district, and shall attach thereto a certificate over his official signature showing that he knows the same to be a full and correct list of such registered voters in such election district, and shall deliver the same to said judges of such special election,