

any such street, lane, road, alley, thoroughfare, used or traveled way or permanently improve the same, the County Commissioners may assess the cost of such improvement against the owners of the abutting property on each side of such roadway to be paid in such installments as the County Commissioners may by resolution prescribe. That there shall be no valid or legal objection to the County Commissioners taking over any such street, road, alley, thoroughfare, used or traveled way because said roadway does not connect any existing county highway.

1927, ch. 618.

780. The County Commissioners of Montgomery County are hereby authorized and empowered to require the owner or owners of any property located at a corner of any highway or street intersection, or intersection of a side street or side road with a county or State highway in said County, to remove therefrom all trees, bushes, vines, fences or other obstructions which in any way obstruct the vision of the operators of vehicles as they reach such intersections. Any owner of property failing to remove such obstructions within two months after notice to remove same has been given him by the County Commissioners, or within such longer period as is specified in said notice by said County Commissioners, shall be subject to a penalty of ten dollars, the said penalty to be collected as other fines and penalties are collected. Provided, however, that the County Commissioners, in their discretion, shall have the authority and power, after due notice, to have the trees, bushes, vines, fences or other obstructions removed and charge the cost of such removal to the owner or owners of the property, and such cost or charges shall become a lien on said property and may be collected in the same manner as taxes are collected.

781. The County Commissioners of Montgomery County are hereby authorized and empowered to take such necessary action as they may deem expedient for the purpose of widening, improving and maintaining the road known as the Rockville and Georgetown Pike beginning at the line of the District of Columbia on said road to a point on said road where the old Georgetown Pike intersects with the Rockville to Georgetown Pike at the Village of Edgemoor and about in front of the premises owned and occupied by Robert D. Hagner.

782. The County Commissioners in their discretion may cause to be condemned such land and premises as may be necessary for the purpose of widening, improving and maintaining said thoroughfare along the lines indicated; that said road may be widened, located or re-located by said Commissioners under the provisions of the General Laws of Maryland authorizing, requiring and directing the Commissioners to open, alter, locate or re-locate any public road or by condemnation proceedings as provided for under the General Laws of this State. That said Commissioners
