

1927, ch. 508, sec. 483A.

793. Every citizen of Rockville who has resided within the corporate limits of the said town for six consecutive months next preceding any town election, and who was a qualified voter at the last preceding State or Congressional election, or who may reach the age of twenty-one years between the second Tuesday of November and the first Tuesday of May preceding any town election, shall be a duly qualified voter of the town and every duly qualified voter of the town, who is duly registered in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall be entitled to vote at any and all town elections.

It shall be the duty of the Mayor on or before the first Monday in March of each and every year to appoint three residents and qualified voters of the town of Rockville as Registrars of voters in the said town. The Registrars so appointed shall qualify within five days after their appointment and shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, make oath in due form of law before some Justice of the Peace of Montgomery County that they, severally, will fairly, faithfully and honestly perform their duties as such Registrars. And, on the failure of any such Registrar to serve or qualify, the Mayor shall appoint some other person duly qualified as substitute, and such substitute, after having taken the oath aforesaid, shall hold the office for the unexpired term.

1927, ch. 508, sec. 483B.

794. It shall be the duty of the Mayor and Council of Rockville to furnish the Registrars with a suitable book in which to register voters according to the provisions of this Act and to appoint and supply a place where said Registrars shall sit in the discharge of their duties.

The Registrars shall give at least two weeks' notice in two or more papers published in the Town of Rockville, of the time, as hereinafter specified, and place of the sitting of the Registrars for the purpose of registration.

There shall be a registration of the qualified voters of Rockville on the last Monday in March and on the first Monday in April of each year, at which times the said Registrars shall sit for the performance of their duties. If necessary for the performance of their duties or for the convenience of the citizens of the said town of Rockville, the Mayor may appoint another day or other days for such sitting of Registrars.

The said Registrars shall, at their sittings:

(1) Record upon the registration books the names of all persons who are qualified voters of the said town under the provisions of this Act and whose names are not recorded in said book, together with such information as the Mayor and Council of Rockville may from time to time by ordinance require to be recorded; and

(2) Strike from the said books the names of all deceased persons, and of all persons who shall have removed from the corporate limits of the said town and remained absent for a period of six consecutive months and taken up their residence elsewhere.
