

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 16, sec. 196. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 504.

822. The bailiff shall attend the meetings of the Council, and perform such duties as it shall direct. He shall prevent disorderly or irregular meetings of persons, and he shall enforce all ordinances that may be enacted by the Council.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 16, sec. 197. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 505.

823. The Mayor shall have all the powers of a justice of the peace in criminal cases when the Mayor and Council are a party, and shall receive the same fees as a justice of the peace is allowed for similar services, and an appeal from his judgment, when the amount exceeds five dollars, may be taken to the Circuit Court for the county, which shall hear and determine the matter as upon appeal from a justice of the peace, provided, however, that the justices of the peace residing in said town shall have the same power to hear, try and determine all criminal cases where the Mayor and Council are a party as they now have in cases where the State of Maryland is a party.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 16, sec. 198. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 506.

824. The bailiff shall have the same fees for making distresses or levying execution for taxes as are allowed county collectors, and for making arrests or serving process for violation of any ordinance of the corporation the same fees as are allowed constables for similar services; and when the bailiff wilfully fails to discharge any duty of his office he may, in addition to the remedy on his bond, be fined by the Mayor in his discretion, not exceeding ten dollars, for any one offense, for the payment of which said fine his bond shall be responsible.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 16, sec. 199. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 507.

825. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by this subtitle of this article, or by any ordinance of the Council, may be collected in the name of the Mayor and Council, before the Mayor or any justice of the peace, in the same manner as small debts are collected, and the delinquent shall stand committed to the county jail until the same are paid, with costs.

1890, ch. 546, sec. 201. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 508.

826. The public buildings and other county property in said town shall not be subject to taxation, and shall continue to the uses to which the same are now allotted; the judges of the several courts shall continue to hold their courts in the court house as heretofore; the commissioners of the county, the board of public school commissioners, justices of the peace, sheriff, constables and all other State and county officers shall have, hold and exercise their offices in said town as heretofore, except as qualified by the other sections of this article, and the County Commissioners of Montgomery County shall on or before the first day of January, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and on or before the first day of January, in each
