

made under authority conferred hereby, the proper local authorities of the municipality, in addition to other remedies, may institute any appropriate action or proceedings to prevent such unlawful erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, conversion, maintenance, or use, to restrain, correct, or abate such violation, to prevent the occupancy of said building, structure, or land, or to prevent any legal act, conduct, business or use in or about such premises.

1929, ch. 415, sec. 9.

858. Conflict With Other Laws. Whenever the regulations made under authority of this Act require a greater width or size of yards, courts, or other open spaces, or require a lower height of building or less number of stories, or require a greater percentage of lot to be left unoccupied, or impose other higher standards than are required in any other statute or local ordinance or regulation, the provisions of the regulations made under authority of this Act shall govern. Wherever the provisions of any other statute or local ordinance or regulation require a greater width or size of yards, courts or other open space, or require a lower height of buildings, or a less number of stories, or require a greater percentage of lot to be left unoccupied, or impose other higher standards than are required by the regulations made under authority of this Act, the provisions of such local ordinance or statute or regulation shall govern.

SCHOOLS.

1914, ch. 361, sec. 524A.

859. It shall be the duty of the Board of County School Commissioners for Montgomery County to keep separately its funds for the maintenance of the Public Schools of said County from those for new buildings and equipment, and no funds levied for such maintenance shall be expended for new buildings and equipment save and except any surplus which may remain at the end of any school year after the payment of all obligations for such maintenance; and it shall be the duty of said Board on or before the first day of June of each year to submit to the County Commissioners of said County detailed sworn estimates of the expense of maintenance of the public schools of said County for the school year beginning on the first day of August next succeeding, and which estimate shall include the estimated receipts from the Treasurer of the State for general school purposes and separately on account of each high school as well as the estimated total expense of maintenance of the high school department of each high school of said County for such year; provided that a supplemental estimate may be submitted promptly after the June apportionment by the Comptroller of the State.

1914, ch. 361, sec. 524B.

860. In making its annual levy for public school purposes, it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners of Montgomery County to sepa-