

challenged before the Council, sitting for the purpose of hearing appeals as herein provided, although not challenged at the time of registration, provided notice is given at any time before noon on the said appeal day to the party whose qualifications are to be challenged.

(B) A general registration shall be held at such times as the Council may by ordinance direct; provided, however, that in no case shall more than ten years elapse between any such general registration and the next succeeding general registration. The Council shall appoint a sufficient number of registration officers to conduct registrations with the least possible delay and inconvenience to applicants applying for registration; and the Council may direct officers of registration to sit for the registration of qualified voters at such additional times as may in the judgment of the Council be necessary; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to relieve the officers of registration from sitting on the days and hours herein specifically provided.

(C) The Council is authorized and directed to fix the compensation of such officers of registration, and to pay such compensation and all other expense incident to the registration herein provided for.

(D) The Council is further authorized to promulgate, by ordinance, rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, relating to the registration herein provided.

(E) Any person who shall wilfully swear falsely before such registration officers in order to procure his name, or that of any other person to be removed from or placed on the registration list, shall be guilty of the crime of perjury, and shall be liable for presentment and indictment therefor in the Circuit Court of Montgomery County, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or be confined in the penitentiary of the State for not exceeding one (1) year, or may be both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the Court.

958. (A) The Council shall meet at some convenient place in said town on or before the first Monday in June next succeeding their election, and as often thereafter as may be necessary to discharge the duties of their office; not less, however, than once in every month. A majority of the Council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the Council shall pass rules and by-laws for their own government while in session; upon a tie vote the vote of the Mayor shall be deciding; in the absence of the Mayor at any meeting the members of the Council present shall elect one of their own number to provide during his absence who, for the time being, shall be clothed with all the powers and authority of the Mayor.

(B) The Mayor, as executive officer of the town, shall be charged with enforcement of the laws and ordinances of the municipality; he shall annually appoint such standing committees and from time to time such special committees as the Council may determine and shall designate the
