

1912, ch. 790, sec. 4.

987. All laws and parts of laws now in force relating or applicable to Montgomery county, and not included in this act, and not inconsistent with this act, and all rules and regulations of the County Commissioners of Montgomery County, heretofore passed in any lawful capacity, and not inconsistent with this act, are hereby continued until changed or repealed, respectively, by the General Assembly of Maryland or said county commissioners acting as aforesaid in any lawful capacity; provided, that all acts or parts of acts passed at the session of the General Assembly of Maryland in the year nineteen hundred and twelve, relating to Montgomery county, or in any manner amending or adding to Article 16 of the Public Local Laws, as said article existed before the passage of this act, shall in no wise be affected by the passage of this act, but all such laws shall have the same force and effect as if this act had not been passed.

1912, ch. 790, sec. 5.

988. All officers provided for or named in said act, whether by election or appointment, shall continue to hold, exercise and discharge the duties of their respective offices, until they shall be superseded under the provisions of said act, and until their successors shall be duly qualified, and nothing contained in said act shall be construed to interfere with the continuity of the term or tenure of any of said officers; nor shall a reappointment or re-election of any of the said officers be necessary in order to secure the said continuity of their said terms and tenures of office, unless provided in said act.
