

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 49. 1914 Code, sec. 72.

57. Any one order which may be given to any minor under the provisions of Section 54, shall not be available for the purpose for which it was given for a longer period than two days from its date.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 50. 1914 Code, sec. 73.

58. It shall be the duty of the Sheriff of Anne Arundel County, and his deputies, and of the constables of the City of Annapolis, to exercise the utmost vigilance in order to detect all violations of law in relation to the sale of liquors to minors and others as forbidden by Section 54, and to report immediately any such violation to the Circuit Court for said county, which shall forthwith direct the offending party to be brought before them and shall require him to give adequate security for his appearance at the next term of said court, and shall commit such party to jail in default of such security; and if any Sheriff or constable shall neglect to report to the court any such violation of the said section as soon as the same shall come to his knowledge, he shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars for each case of such neglect, to be recovered by any person in the name of the State by action of debt in said court.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 51. 1914 Code, sec. 74.

59. All fines imposed and collected under the provisions of Section 54, shall go, one-half to the informer, and the other half shall be divided equally between the State's Attorney and the Sheriff or other officer who shall have made report in the case to the Court under Section 58.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 52. 1914 Code, sec. 75.

60. No person in said City of Annapolis shall sell, dispose of, barter, or, if a dealer in any one or more of the articles of merchandise in this section mentioned, shall give away on the Sabbath day, commonly called Sunday, any tobacco, cigars, candy, soda or mineral waters, spirituous or fermented liquors, cordials, lager beer, wine, cider or any other goods, wares or merchandise whatsoever; and any person violating any one of the provisions of this section shall be liable to indictment, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined a sum not less than twenty, nor more than fifty dollars, in the discretion of the Court, for the first offense, and if convicted a second time for a violation of this section, the person so offending shall be fined a sum not less than fifty, nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for not less than ten, nor more than thirty days, in the discretion of the Court, and his license, if any were issued, shall be declared null and void by said Court, and it shall not be lawful for such person to obtain another license for the period of twelve months from the time of such conviction, nor shall a license be obtained by any other person to carry on said business on the premises or elsewhere, if the person so as aforesaid convicted has any interest whatever therein, or shall derive any profit whatever therefrom; and in case of being convicted more than twice for a violation of this section, such person on each occasion shall
