

entitled to them under this Act, and according to the conditions and provisions of this Act, the amount so received from said license to be paid to the County Commissioners of Prince George's County to be credited by them to the general fund of said County.

1916, ch. 589, sec. 3.

17. Each applicant for such a license shall pay the yearly sum of ten dollars ($10.00) if he be a resident of said County; the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) if he be a resident of the State outside of said County; and the sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) if he be not a resident of the State; and no license shall be issued by said Clerk of the County Court to any such person until the aforesaid license fee has been paid and until such person has made oath as to his place of residence.

1916, ch. 589, sec. 4.

18. Every person conducting a sale in violation of Section 15 of this subtitle shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars in the discretion of the Court.

BAILIFFS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 24. 1912 Code, sec. 26. 1922, ch. 287.

19. The County Commissioners shall annually levy a sum of money sufficient to pay the bailiffs of said county three ($3.00) dollars each per day as compensation for their services, and a certificate signed by the Clerk of the Circuit Court and expressing the number of days any bailiff shall have served and the sum due for such service, shall be sufficient authority to them to pay the amount therein specified; and the balance, if any, remaining at the end of the year shall be applied by them to the use of the county.

BAWDY HOUSES.

1914, ch. 471.

20. Whenever a house shall be erected, established, continued, maintained, used, owned or occupied in Prince George's County contrary to the provisions of Section 20 of Article 27 of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Crimes and Punishment," subtitle "Bawdy Houses and Houses of Ill Fame," not only the occupants and tenants of said houses, but the owners and landlords of the same who shall knowingly suffer or permit such a house to be erected, established or maintained, used or occupied contrary to the provisions of said Section 20 of Article 27 above mentioned shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and any landlord or tenant who shall be so guilty of renting from or to a house of the character mentioned in Section 20, Article 27, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and the State's Attorney for said County, upon written complaint of ten citizens of said County, shall have served through the Sheriff of said