

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 49. 1912 Code, sec. 59.

47. They may appoint a clerk, prescribe his duties, and allow him such compensation as they may think proper.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 50. 1912, Code, sec. 60.

48. The clerk shall enter all ordinances passed by the commissioners in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of all persons interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be put up at the most public places in the village.

1896, ch. 37, sec. 51. 1912 Code, sec. 61.

49. The commissioners may annually appoint a bailiff, who, before entering upon his duties shall make oath before a justice of the peace of said county, that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties required of him as bailiff of said village, according to the best of his skill and judgment, and who shall also give bond in the sum of fifty dollars for the faithful performance of his duties, the said bond to be approved by the said commissioners.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 52. 1912 Code, sec. 62.

50. The said bailiff shall attend the meetings of the commissioners when required, and perform such services as they direct.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 53. 1912 Code, sec. 63.

51. The commissioners may pass all by-laws and ordinances necessary to give effect to the powers vested in them by this charter, and impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for the breach of their by-laws and ordinances; but no ordinance shall impose a fine, penalty, or forfeiture, for any one offense, of more than ten dollars.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 54. 1912 Code, sec. 64.

52. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by any by-law or ordinance may be collected as small debts are, and shall be applied in such manner, for the use of said village, as may from time to time be directed by ordinance.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 55. 1912 Code, sec. 65.

53. It shall not be lawful for swine to go at large in the village of Bladensburg, and the bailiff of said village may take up and impound any swine which may be found going at large in said village; and on his failure or neglect to take up and impound swine so found going at large, it shall and may be lawful for any citizen of said village to do so; and any person so taking up and impounding shall give four days' notice thereof by advertisement set up at four of the most public places in said village, describing the swine impounded, and declaring that the same will be sold at public auction at some public place in said village; one-half of the purchase money shall go to the person impounding such swine, and
