

pass rules and regulations consistent with the provisions of this Act for their own government while in session. Any Councilman absent from three consecutive meetings, without excuse, shall constitute a vacancy. All vacancies occurring shall be filled by the Mayor and Town Council. The Mayor shall preside at the meeting of the Council and shall call meetings from time to time as he may deem necessary, but in case of his absence from any meeting, the Councilmen present shall elect one of their members to preside who shall for the time being have all the authority of the Mayor.

1922, ch. 153, sec. 7. 1927, ch. 177, sec. 7.

113. All citizens of the United States of the age of twenty-one years and over who shall have actually resided within the limits of the town of Brentwood not less than 365 days next preceding any regular election for Councilmen, who have never been convicted of any infamous crime, shall be qualified voters of said town and as such shall be entitled to register as hereinafter provided and after such registration to vote at any election held in said town under the provisions of this Act, unless they shall be thereafter disqualified by loss of citizenship, actual removal from said town or conviction for an infamous crime, in which case their name shall be stricken from the registration books hereinafter provided for.

1927, ch. 177, sec. 7A.

114. On or before the second Monday in May in each and every year, the Mayor and Town Council shall appoint two qualified voters of said town not holding any other office thereunder as Supervisors of Election, who shall also act as Registration Officials and Judges of Election at any election held during the year succeeding their appointment, and said Supervisors of Election are authorized to administer oaths in the performance of their duties hereinafter set forth. In case of a vacancy occurring in said year in the office of Supervisors of Election, the Mayor and Town Council shall appoint a qualified person to fill said vacancy occurring in said office. The Supervisors of Election shall receive five dollars each for each and every day they may be required to serve as Judges of Election or as Registration Officials.

115. The said Supervisors of Election shall appoint by at least one advertisement in some county newspaper having general circulation in the town, the first and second Mondays in June in each and every year for registration, on which days the Supervisors of Election shall sit as Registration Officials at some easily accessible place in said town to be named in said advertisement between the hours of 1 and 8 p. m.

Each of said Supervisors shall be furnished by the Mayor and Town Council with a well-bound registration book which shall be kept by him and for which he shall be responsible. In such books there shall be a space for the name of each person registering, his age, his color, his actual place of residence in said town, his ward, his occupation, and the date of
