

town, and for this purpose he is vested with the same authority as any health officer of the State, within the corporate limits of said town.

1922, ch. 153, sec. 10.

121. The Police Justice shall have all the powers of a Justice of the Peace, in all cases where the town of Brentwood is a party, and shall receive the same fees allowed Justices of the Peace in similar cases; and an appeal be taken to the Circuit Court for the County within thirty days, which shall hear and determine the matter as upon appeals from Justices of the Peace. The Mayor will be vested with power to try and determine all cases in which the town of Brentwood is a party, in the absence of the Police Justice of said town.

122. The Mayor and Town Council is hereby authorized to make or cause to be made a plat of said town upon which shall be shown all streets, roads, and public ways, whether theretofore or hereafter laid out or projected, and by which all lots and property therein shall hereafter be described; to control the subdivision of all lands and property within the corporate limits of said town; to establish building lines, and to require all persons erecting buildings in said town to conform thereto; to establish grades of the streets, gutters and sidewalks of said town and to fix the width thereof; to open and keep open and free from obstruction, all streets and public reservations; to grade, close or alter the same; and their rights, powers and duties in relation thereto shall, except as hereinafter otherwise prescribed, be the same as is provided by the Code of Public General Laws of this State for opening, altering and closing public roads by the Board of County Commissioners, with the right to appeal to the Circuit Court for the County.

1922, ch. 153, sec. 12.

123. The Mayor and Town Council shall have full power to pass such ordinances as they may deem necessary for the good government, health, and improvement of the town, and for the preservation of peace and good order therein. They may provide by ordinance for the opening and closing of streets, alleys, the straightening, widening and improvement of same, for the establishment of width and care of sidewalks and the construction of the same; they may by ordinance cause such license to be issued as the State laws may permit, upon such terms and conditions as to them may seem proper; they shall have full power to impose such fines, penalties and punishment for the breach of their ordinances as they may think proper. They may recover such fines or penalties by an action of debt, and in addition thereto may provide for the commitment of the offender for a period of not more than thirty days, to such place of confinement as they may provide.

1922, ch. 153, sec. 13.

124. The Council shall have the same power as the State Board of Health, within the corporate limits of the said town. They may adopt
