

elected, said veto shall stand. In the case of any ordinance, law or regulation of the said Council the Mayor shall in the event of his disapproval thereof, give his reasons therefor in writing within thirty days after receipt thereof by him from said Council, or such ordinance, law or regulation shall be considered to have passed and shall then in all respects become valid without his approval.

1922, ch. 52, sec. 14.

156. The Common Council shall meet each year upon the second Wednesday next succeeding the election, and after qualifying by taking the prescribed oath, proceed to elect one of the number of the Council as president; said Council shall meet thereafter on the second Monday of each month for the transaction of the regular business of the town, but it may meet oftener if required; at all meetings of the Council, four members present and voting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and a majority vote of all the members shall be necessary for the passage of any ordinance, law or regulation; during the term of said Mayor or Councilmen, if any of them should die, resign or remove from the town or be otherwise disqualified, the vacancy shall be filled by the Council for the unexpired term. The Common Council shall be the judge of the qualifications of its own members, and may provide by ordinance for contested elections.

1922, ch. 52, sec. 15.

157. There shall be appointed by the Mayor, subject to the confirmation of the town Council on the fourth Monday in April, 1923, and on the fourth Monday in April every five years thereafter, three assessors who shall be qualified voters of said town who shall constitute a board of assessors and whose duties it shall be, after having qualified by taking oath to faithfully, honestly and impartially perform their duties as such assessors, to assess each and every piece of land separately in the name of the actual owner at a fair cash value at public sale, as near as they may be able to determine the same, and to show in the said assessment each piece of land with the assessed value of each and the name of the actual owner thereof when the same can be obtained. Immediately upon completion of said assessment the Board of Assessors shall give notice of the fact to the Mayor, who will cause notice thereof to be posted in three conspicuous places in said town or published in a newspaper or newspapers published in said town or county in which the town is situated, or both, which said notices shall state that the assessment books will be open for inspection on three evenings from 7.30 to 10.30 P. M., within three weeks from the date of said notice. If any owner of any property so assessed shall feel aggrieved by said assessment he may appeal to the Mayor and Common Council, which is hereby constituted a board of final appeal and equalization of said assessment, within fifteen days from the last inspection day. And said Mayor and Council may make such deduction from or addition to the assessments made by the Board