

fore accepted by them. The said Mayor and Common Council may enact all ordinances from time to time, not contrary to law, necessary and proper to exercise the power granted in this section; provided, that before opening or condemning any street or alley at least twenty days' notice shall be given by them of any application which may be made for the passage of any such ordinance, by notice posted in at least three public places, and by two weekly insertions in at least one and not more than two newspapers published in Prince George's County.

1922, ch. 52, sec. 19.

161. The Mayor and Common Council may by ordinance provide for such fines, penalties, and forfeitures for breach of their ordinances as they may think proper, not exceeding twenty-five dollars for any one offense; and may provide for non-payment of such fines, penalties and forfeitures that the offender be imprisoned in some place of confinement as provided in the succeeding section, for a period of not exceeding sixty days.

1922, ch. 52, sec. 20.

162. They may provide by ordinance for the good government of the town, for the preservation of peace and order therein, and for securing to the residents of said town all the rights of person and property to which they are entitled by law; for the surveying, grading, paving, repairing, draining, laying out, extending, widening, opening, closing, straightening or relocating streets, sidewalks, or alleys in said town, and they may condemn or purchase the right of way for any street or alley which they may determine shall be opened for the public good; for the removal of any obstruction from streets, lanes and alleys; for establishing of building lines and building regulations; for prohibiting carrying of concealed weapons; for prohibiting the discharge of firecrackers, torpedoes, and other explosives; for preventing swine, cattle, fowls, dogs or other animals from running at large on the streets; for the suppression of gambling, vice, or immorality; for apprehending and punishing all tramps and vagrants; and they shall pass all ordinances necessary from time to time to carry out and enforce the foregoing provisions, and give full force and effect to the power and authority conferred on said corporation; and they may provide by ordinance for reasonable fines and penalties not exceeding twenty-five dollars in any one case, as may appear to them right, upon conviction before a justice of the peace. All prosecutions under this section or any ordinance made in pursuance thereof shall be before any justice of the peace of Prince George's County resident of said town, who may, upon conviction, impose such fine as may be specified by any such ordinance, not to exceed twenty-five dollars, and in addition thereto may imprison the offender until the fine be paid, not exceeding thirty days, such imprisonment to be in the town lockup if one be provided, or in the county jail, and the Sheriff of Prince George's County shall receive and confine any person so committed.