

1922, ch. 52, sec. 21.

163. And they may pass such ordinances as shall be necessary and proper for the preservation of the health of the town, and remove all nuisances from and prohibit all business within the corporate limits, as shall in their opinion injuriously affect the sanitary conditions thereof.

1922, ch. 52, sec. 22.

164. They may provide by ordinance for fine or imprisonment or both for violation of any ordinance passed under Section 163, as set forth in Section 162.

1922, ch. 52, sec. 23.

165. All sidewalks on any of the streets of said town shall not be less than four feet in width, and of such material as the Mayor and Common Council may direct, and said Mayor and Common Council may assess upon the land abutting said sidewalk two-thirds of the cost of construction thereof, which assessment shall be a lien upon such abutting property, and be recovered from the owners of such abutting property in the name of the corporation as others of like amount are recoverable in this State by law.

1922, ch. 52, sec. 24.

166. And they shall by ordinance provide for the codification of all ordinances which have been or may be passed, and for the printing of such codifications therefor, and the printed ordinances so issued by the authority of the Mayor and Common Council may be read in evidence from the printed codification.

1922, ch. 52, sec. 25.

167. They may provide for and take care of all persons suffering from accident, sickness or physical or mental infirmity and who are unable to take care of themselves, and if deemed necessary may send them to the almshouse of Prince George's County, in which case all expenses so incurred shall be repaid to the Mayor and Common Council of the town by the County Commissioners, who are authorized and required to levy annually such amount as may be necessary for reimbursement thereof, and to issue warrants for such purposes payable to the Mayor and Common Council of said town.

1922, ch. 52, sec. 26.

168. At all elections to be held under the provisions of this Act on the first Monday in May, 1922, and every two years thereafter there shall be one person elected as treasurer of said town who shall possess the same qualifications as are herein prescribed in the case of the Mayor, to serve for two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified, whose duty it shall be to keep an account of the receipts and disbursements of the corporation in a well bound book to be provided by the Mayor and Common Council. Said treasurer, before entering upon his duties, shall give
