

1922, ch. 52, sec. 33.

175. The Mayor and the Common Council of Capitol Heights may purchase and hold any property, real, personal or mixed, for the town purposes, and dispose of the same for the benefit of said town, and may erect suitable buildings for municipal purposes, the cost of any one building not to exceed five thousand dollars.

1922, ch. 52, sec. 34.

176. And the Mayor and Common Council shall deliver to the purchaser at any tax sale as heretofore provided for the collection of taxes, a certificate of purchase of the real property so sold, and the said certificate and the deed executed as herein provided shall convey to the purchaser the absolute and fee simple title to the said property and shall be presumptive evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with in making such sale and certificate, but the delinquent taxpayer shall have the right to redeem at any time within two years after the said certificate by paying the unpaid tax and costs, with legal interest and penalty of ten per cent. thereon, and if not so redeemed within two years after the said certificate a deed shall be executed for same. This section is applicable only when property is sold at public auction, after giving at least ten days' public notice of said sale in at least one and not more than two newspapers, to be designated by the Mayor of Capitol Heights or by notice posted in at least three public places in said town.

1922, ch. 52, sec. 35.

177. The Mayor and Common Council may provide by ordinance for the immediate arrest, without warrant, of any person found violating any town ordinance, and when it shall appear that the offender is intoxicated, may confine said offender in some secure place until he is sober and may provide further for the confinement of any person arrested, if the time be reasonable, as in the night, whereby he cannot attend the justice until a reasonable hour of the succeeding morning, when he shall be taken before a Justice of the Peace, and dealt with according to the nature of the offense, provided that the Mayor and Common Council may by ordinance provide that such person so arrested may deposit with the bailiff a sum of money to cover any fine that may be assessed against him, acceptable to said bailiff.

1922, ch. 52, sec. 36.

178. Justices of the Peace for Prince George's County, residents in the town, are hereby declared to be conservators of the peace of the town, and it shall be their duty to order the arrest of any person found by them breaking the peace or disturbing the quiet and order of the town, or violating any of the ordinances made by the Mayor and Common Council, and upon conviction to fine or imprison such offender as provided in said ordinance. The fees of the Justice shall be the same as are allowed for similar service by the laws of this State.
