

sold for a default in the payment of taxes, which sales have or may hereafter be reported to the Circuit Court as provided by law, which docket shall be provided with space to enter the time of redemption of the said property so sold and reported, and space for such other entries as shall afford complete and accurate information relative to the legal status of all property sold as aforesaid for a default in the payment of taxes or the redemption thereof; and the treasurer of said county is hereby authorized and directed to report to the said clerk of the Circuit Court the redemption of all property sold for taxes, for which report the said treasurer shall be authorized to charge a fee of twenty-five cents for each redemption as reported, which fee shall be charged as a part of the penalty and costs as to the said sale for taxes, to be paid by the person redeeming said property, and all such fees so collected shall be credited to the redemption fund now or hereafter provided by law relative to the duty of the said treasurer.

1910, ch. 87, sec. 7. 1912 Code, sec. 168.

237. When and as the dockets and indexes as herein provided are completed the County Commissioners of Prince George's County be, and they are hereby authorized and directed to levy for said purpose an amount sufficient to pay what is a fair and reasonable charge for the work aforesaid, as well as for the cost and proper expense for the books, furniture, and fixtures requisite to preserve and keep the said records in good order and shape; provided, that the cost of the work herein authorized and directed shall first be met out of the current fees of the office of the said clerk over and above the amount necessary to pay the salaries of said office and expenses of said clerk as fixed by law.

1912, ch. 826.

238. The clerk of the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, Maryland, is hereby authorized and empowered to provide metallic files for the better protection of the law and equity court papers and records of the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, Maryland, according to the most approved system now in vogue.

COLMAR MANOR.*

1927, ch. 178, sec. 1.

239. The citizens of the town of Colmar Manor as hereinafter defined are a body corporate, by the name of the Mayor and Town Council of Colmar Manor, Maryland, and by that name may have perpetual succession, sue and be sued, have and use a common seal, and may purchase and hold all kinds of property including real estate, or dispose of the same by sale or lease for the benefit of said district.

*The Act incorporating Colmar Manor was ratified by the voters at election May 12, 1927, in accordance with the provisions of secs. 20 and 21, ch. 178, 1927.