

ballot in the ward in which he resides, and should the answer of the said applicant be in the negative to either of the above second and third questions then and in that event he shall not be allowed to vote. Should the applicant answer any one of the above provided questions falsely he shall be guilty of the crime of perjury and be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the State of Maryland. The Judges shall provide themselves with a list of the voters living within the boundaries of said town, and if a person votes whose name is not on said list a record shall be made of that fact, and the truth of such person's answers to the above provided questions shall be investigated, and if found to be false it shall be the duty of said judges to cause the offender to be indicted for perjury. They shall also prepare ballots containing the names of those persons who have complied with the provisions herein specified making them eligible to become a candidate for the office for which they seek. The Mayor and Council shall receive all returns of elections and determine all questions arising thereunder.

246. Any person desiring to run for said Mayor, Treasurer, Clerk, or Councilman of said town, shall be at least Twenty-five years of age and shall have resided within the boundary limits of said town for at least one year immediately prior to election and each of whom shall have an equity in real property in said town of Colmar Manor, and shall file a petition with a member of the Board of Election Supervisors as provided for in Section 245 of this subtitle, containing the signatures of at least ten voters of the town of Colmar Manor, within fifteen days previous to the election; when said petitions have been filed and the time for their filing having expired, the Board of Election Supervisors shall cause to be published in such manner as shall give general publicity; the names and positions to which they aspire, of the petitioners who have filed their petitions in accordance with this Act.

247. The Mayor, with the approval of the majority of the Councilmen, shall designate a Justice of the Peace to act as a Police Justice, shall appoint a Solicitor, a Marshal and a Health Officer to hold office for two years, or until their successors are appointed and qualified. The Mayor and Council shall fix the compensation of each, and of all subordinates under them, and shall prescribe their duties except as herein provided; provided, however, that the Justice of the Peace acting as a Police Justice, the Solicitor, and the Marshal and the Marshal's assistants shall receive no compensation other than such fees as are allowed Justices of the Peace and Constables in similar cases. The Marshal and the Health Officer shall each, with the approval of the Mayor and Council, appoint such assistant or assistants, as the Mayor and Council will allow, and shall be held responsible under the Mayor for the enforcement of such regulations as the Mayor and Council may prescribe. They shall
