

CONSTABLES.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 182. 1912 Code, sec. 169. 1927, ch. 425.

258. There shall be one constable for each of the several election districts of Prince George's County.*

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 187. 1912 Code, sec. 170.

259. Constables shall be entitled to the fees prescribed by law to be taxed against and paid by the party against whom judgment shall be rendered, unless he or she be discharged therefrom by due course of law; if such party against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same, such fee shall be paid by the county commissioners of the county wherein said judgment was rendered.

See sec. 574 for rest of this section relating to Justices of the Peace.

1894, ch. 20, sec. 85A. 1912 Code, sec. 171.

260. Every constable appointed for Prince George's county, before he acts as such, shall give bond to the State of Maryland, with good and sufficient security, to be approved by the county commissioners of said county, in the penalty of five hundred dollars, conditioned that the said constable, as aforesaid, shall well and faithfully execute the said office in all things appertaining thereto, and shall also well and truly account for all moneys placed in his hands for collection or received by him on judgments, and shall well and truly pay over the same; and the said bond shall be recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, and a copy thereof, under the seal of the said Court, shall be good evidence to prove the execution of said bond in any Court of this State.

COTTAGE CITY.

1924, ch. 390, sec. 1.

261. The citizens of the town of Cottage City in Prince George's County are a body corporate by the name of the Town of Cottage City, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, sue and be sued, have and use a common seal, and may purchase and hold or dispose of real and personal property for the benefit of said town.

1924, ch. 390, sec. 2.

262. The boundaries of said town shall be as follows: Beginning at the intersection of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad with Duelling Run, thence northerly along said Baltimore and Ohio Railroad to Bunker Hill Road, thence easterly along said Bunker Hill Road to its intersection with the Washington-Baltimore Boulevard, thence westerly along said Washington-Baltimore Boulevard to its intersection with Duelling Run, thence along the meanderings of said Duelling Run to the place of beginning, containing thirty acres more or less.

*Sec. 2, ch. 425, 1927, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.
