

cases for the recovery of penalties or forfeiture for violations of such ordinances, such ordinances may provide for the payment of reasonable fines, not exceeding fifty (50) dollars for such violation and may provide that in default of payment of any such fine the delinquent shall be committed to the county jail of Prince George's County for a period not exceeding thirty (30) days or until such fine is paid. And it shall be the duty of the sheriff for such county to receive any person so committed and detain the same until such sentence shall have been served or until such fine shall have been paid.

(D) The Chairman Commissioner shall have all the powers of a justice of the peace in civil and criminal cases where the Town of Cottage City is a party, and he shall receive the same fees as justices of the peace are allowed for similar services; and an appeal from the judgment of said Chairman Commissioner may be taken to the Circuit Court of Prince George's County, which Court shall hear and determine the matter as upon appeal from a justice of the peace; provided, however, that any justices of the peace that may reside in said town shall have the same power to hear, try and determine all criminal cases where the Town of Cottage City is a party as they may have in cases where the State of Maryland is a party. All proceedings in civil and criminal cases before said Chairman Commissioner shall be entitled "Before the Chairman Commissioner of the Town of Cottage City"; all such proceedings instituted by or on behalf of said town shall be instituted in the name of the Town of Cottage City; all pleadings or other papers filed in such proceedings by or on behalf of said town shall be signed by the Secretary Commissioner; and such proceedings shall be conducted in the same manner as proceedings are by law conducted before justice of the peace.

(E) All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by any ordinance may be collected in the name of the Town of Cottage City before the Chairman Commissioner or any justice of the peace residing in said town, in the same manner as small debts are collected in proceedings before justices of the peace, and the delinquent shall be committed to the county jail in default of payment until the same is paid. Provided, however, that no person shall be imprisoned for more than thirty (30) days for any one violation of any such ordinance or failure to pay any one penalty or any one forfeiture. All money recovered by way of fines, penalties or forfeitures shall be the money of the Town of Cottage City and be kept and disbursed as other town funds.

(F) The Cottage City Commission may appoint by resolution one or more bailiffs who shall be allowed the same fees for making distress or levying executions as are allowed for like services by the laws of the State of Maryland, and for making arrests or serving process for the violation of any ordinance the same fees as are allowed constables for the similar services. Such bailiff or bailiffs shall be a resident taxpayer upon real estate in said town and shall have attained the age of twenty-one years and shall hold such position for such time as The Cottage City
