

of said regular election shall act as officials for this election and said votes shall be canvassed at the same time and in the same manner as are the votes for the regular election.

And in the event that said election shall be held at some other time than a regular election, then the town of Cottage City and the Cottage City Commission shall appoint the necessary officers to conduct said election, and said election and the count and canvass of said ballots shall be conducted as provided in the town charter for all general town elections.

And in the event that said election shall be held at some time other than a regular election, the poll books showing the registered voters of said town last registered shall be used.

And in the event that at such election the majority of votes cast for and against the amendment allowing the special tax shall be in favor of allowing said special tax, then this Act shall be in full force and effect; but in event that the majority of votes so cast shall be against the amendment allowing the special tax, then the town of Cottage City and the Cottage City Commission may submit the same question in the same manner and under this Act to the qualified voters of said town at the general town election held in said town in May, 1930, in the same method and manner as hereinbefore provided, and if a majority of the votes cast upon said question shall be "For a special assessment of 12 cents on each $100.00 of real and personal property to be paid to the Cottage City Volunteer Fire Company for its exclusive use in the maintenance, operation, care and purchase of equipment," then this Act shall be in full force and effect; but if a majority of the votes cast upon said question shall be "Against a special assessment of 12 cents on each $100.00 of real and personal property to be paid to the Cottage City Volunteer Fire Company for its exclusive use in the maintenance, operation, care and purchase of equipment," then this Act shall be void and of no effect.*
