

the Board of County Road Directors for said county for the year preceding the last Monday in March and report the same together with a full statement of the financial condition of the County Commissioners of Prince George's County to said Commissioners, and the said report shall be published in the newspaper having the county printing and be embraced in the annual contract for such printing. The said Transfer Clerk and Auditor shall also perform such other and further duties as the County Commissioners of Prince George's County may impose upon him.

Before entering upon the duties of his office said Transfer Clerk and Auditor shall take oath before any of said County Commissioners that he will diligently, without partiality or prejudice, discharge the duties of his office, and he shall be entitled to a salary of twelve hundred dollars a year which salary shall be in full for any and all services rendered by said Transfer Clerk and Auditor.

319. Said Transfer Clerk and Auditor shall be subject to removal at any time by said County Commissioners after a public hearing upon notice of written charges preferred against him.

1924, ch. 505.

320. Before any deed for the conveyance of real estate in Prince George's County shall be copied in the deed books provided for that purpose by the Clerk of the Circuit Court thereof, the said deed shall be submitted to the Transfer Clerk and Auditor appointed by the County Commissioner of said county, who shall thereupon make transfer on the county assessment books of the said property to the name of the new owner or owners thereof, and as evidence of said transfer, shall stamp upon the said deed his certificate thereof, and no deed shall be copied in the deed books without said certificate.*

ASSESSORS.

1902, ch. 411, sec. 92A. 1912 Code, sec. 182.

321. The county commissioners shall, on the last Monday in March, 1902, or so soon thereafter as is practicable, appoint one person from each of the three road districts of Prince George's county as assessor of real or personal property located or being in said road districts whose duty it shall be to hunt for and ascertain any and all property not heretofore assessed, and value and assess the same, and make a proper return thereof to the said county commissioners aforesaid, on or before the first Tuesday of December in each and every year. And said assessors shall receive a fee of $1.00 for each piece of property not on the assessment books, found and reported by them, as aforesaid, and approved by said county commissioners but no piece of property of less value than one hundred dollars shall be reported or assessed.
