

not exceeding six, as in this Act provided, with the right to reject any or all of the persons so designated by the sheriff; and should there remain to be appointed a number insufficient to constitute as many of said Constables at Large as the County Commissioners desire to be appointed, the County Commissioners shall themselves, without further recommendation from the sheriff, complete the appointments by the designation of such person or persons as to them seem best fitted. And the County Commissioners shall have at any and all times the power and authority to remove any one or more of said Constables at Large, and so appointed, at the pleasure of a majority of the Board, with, or without notice; and to fill any vacancies that may occur for unexpired terms in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for original appointments.

333. The Constables at Large, and so appointed, shall each receive a salary not exceeding the sum of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) per annum, payable monthly, and no other fees or compensation whatsoever, except however that in addition to the salary aforesaid those so appointed at large shall each receive the sum of three hundred dollars ($300) per annum, payable monthly, in lieu of all other expenses to the County for the maintenance and up-keep of a motorcycle or motor vehicle to be furnished by the County Commissioners in such number as in their discretion they may think necessary, as well as any expenses for uniforms that the sheriff as the Chief of Police may require to be worn. Provided however, that of the Constables at Large so appointed by the County Commissioners they shall designate one of said number as a Sergeant of Police, who shall receive the sum of eighteen hundred dollars ($1,800) per annum, payable monthly, and the same sum of three hundred dollars ($300) in lieu of all other expenses to the County for the maintenance and up-keep of a motorcycle or motor vehicle, whichever may be furnished by the County Commissioners and used by the Sergeant of Police in the performance of his duties as herein prescribed. That the sheriff as the Chief of Police shall have control and supervision over the other members of the force, and shall assign them to such duties, and at such hours, and at such locations as he may deem proper; and he shall prescribe such rules and regulations to govern and direct said force in the execution of writs, summons and process and other duties to be performed by them, as will be most conducive to the quick administration of law and justice. He shall so arrange his office and his force of assistants as at both day and night, in emergency, communication can be got with his office, and his assistants, and relief promptly had whenever and wherever actually and justifiably required.

334. The Constables at Large, so appointed, are hereby required to report to the sheriff as the Chief of Police immediately after their appointment and qualification, and at all times shall be under the control and supervision of their Chief; and each and all members of said force shall at all times while on duty, unless for good reasons otherwise ordered by
