

1904, ch. 32, sec. 107. 1912 Code, sec. 209. 1918, ch. 13.

341. Before entering upon the duties of his office, the Treasurer shall make an oath, in due form of law before the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, to perform the duties of his office. He shall also execute a good bond in the penalty of fifty thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duties as Treasurer, and further conditioned that he shall well and truly account for and pay over to the person or persons or body corporate entitled thereto, any and all money coming into his possession as treasurer, which bond shall be approved by the County Commissioners of Prince George's County or a majority of them and thereafter be recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Prince George's County. The County Commissioners may require the Treasurer to give as surety in the bond required of him by this Article one of the corporations authorized by the laws of this State to become surety on official bonds; and the Governor of the State may require the Treasurer to give surety on the bond required of him by this Article, to be approved by the Governor, one of the corporations authorized as aforesaid to become surety on official bonds; and in all cases in which such requirement is made, or in any case in which the Treasurer may give such surety without being required so to do, the County Commissioners shall pay the premium or charge for such suretyships, and shall reimburse to the Treasurer any such charge or premium as he may have heretofore paid for such suretyships. Upon default of the Treasurer elect to execute such bond within thirty days after his election, and the same has been declared by the proper officer, the Governor of the State shall appoint another in his place and so on until a Treasurer has been duly qualified.

1898, ch. 222, sec. 108. 1912 Code, sec. 210.

342. In case of the death or resignation of the treasurer during his term of office, the Governor of the State shall within twenty days thereafter, appoint a treasurer for the unexpired term thus created, who shall take the oath, give the bond and perform all the duties of said office prescribed by law, but such successor shall not take charge of or collect any of the taxes that were in the hands of the late treasurer and uncollected. The bond of the former treasurer shall remain responsible for said taxes, and they shall be collected and accounted for under the laws governing such a case.

1898, ch. 222, sec. 109. 1912 Code, sec. 211.

343. The treasurer shall keep and pay over according to law, or upon the order of the County Commissioners, the proceeds of all county taxes levied in said county and collected by him; and shall also keep and pay over to the treasurer of the State, according to law, all the State taxes levied in said county and collected by him. He shall keep a full and accurate account of all matters relating to the duties of his office, including assessments received, money collected and paid out, and vouchers taken therefor; and when required, give to the County Commissioners a true statement thereof.
