

1898, ch. 222, sec. 110. 1912 Code, sec. 212. 1918, ch. 16.

344. The treasurer shall keep his office open in the Court House at Upper Marlboro, in said county from ten o'clock A. M. until three o'clock P. M. each day, Sundays and legal holidays excepted, for the purpose of discharging the duties of his office.

1898, ch. 222, sec. 111. 1912 Code, sec. 213.

345. The treasurer shall at the end of his term of office, deliver up the office to his successor, and all papers and books relative thereto, except the books containing taxes of the last annual levy uncollected by him and for which his bond is responsible and he shall be allowed nine months thereafter to complete the collection of the same, and to make final settlement with the County Commissioners of Prince George's County and the treasurer of the State of Maryland, said books retained by him, as hereinbefore provided, shall not be removed, however, from the treasurer's office.

1908, ch. 226, sec. 112. 1912 Code, sec. 214. 1916, ch. 489. 1922, ch. 84.
1927, ch. 434. 1929, ch. 493.

346. The Treasurer shall be entitled to appoint such clerk or clerks as he may deem necessary, and for whose official conduct he shall be responsible; said clerk or clerks to be paid by the Treasurer out of the salary provided by law to be paid him as compensation for the discharge of his official duties as the collector of taxes, but in addition thereto the County Commissioners may in their discretion allow and pay over to said Treasurer for additional clerk hire an amount not to exceed in any one year the sum of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000).*

1898, ch. 222, sec. 113. 1912 Code, sec. 215. 1918, ch. 18.

347. All county taxes shall be paid in cash or in the matured coupons of Prince George's County bonds; and all money collected by the Treasurer and belonging to said County shall be deposited by him, as soon as collected, in the name of the Treasurer of said County, and not in his individual name, in such amounts and in such safe bank or banks of said County as are approved by him and which will agree to pay interest on said deposits of not less than two per cent. per annum, computed monthly on the daily average balances of said Treasurer. All interest earned by said funds shall be credited to the respective accounts of said Treasurer semi-annually, and accounted for by him.

1898, ch. 222, sec. 114. 1912 Code, sec. 216.

348. All county taxes shall be due on the first day of July next succeeding their levy, and shall bear interest from that date. On such as remain unpaid after the first day of November following, there shall accrue, in addition to said interest, a penalty of one-half of one per cent. for each whole month that they may elapse thereafter, until payment or a sale for default which is finally ratified by the Court.

*Sec. 2, ch. 493, 1929, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.
