

tively sold, the amount of taxes and of interest accrued and costs of said sale.

1898, ch. 222, sec. 116. 1912 Code, sec. 218.

351. The treasurer shall make up and publish weekly, for six consecutive weeks before the first Monday of March in each year, a list of all taxes assessed upon real estate, which then remain unpaid and in default. Said list shall be inserted in one newspaper published in Prince George's county, Maryland, to be selected by said treasurer, and shall contain the name or names of the persons appearing upon the assessment book as the owner or owners of each piece of said real estate, and if said real estate has changed hands, in whole or in part, and such change be known to the treasurer, also, the present owners thereof, the location of the property by district, the quantity of land it contains and other matters of description that may be known to the treasurer, such as its name, the adjacent property holders, the book and page of the county land records which contain the transfer of said property to the present owner, if ascertained, and the amount of taxes in default, with the interest and the penalties accrued, and to accrue to day of sale, upon each piece of said real estate. To said list shall be appended a notice that if such tax or taxes, interest and penalties, and the costs of sale be not paid before the first Monday of March following, the said treasurer will, on that day, at ten o'clock A. M., at the Court House door, in the town of Upper Marlboro, in said county, proceed to offer each of the said parcels of real estate for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, to satisfy said taxes, interest, penalties and costs of the sale thereon, beginning with the first parcel on said list and continuing on in the order of said list, from day to day, from ten o'clock A. M. until three o'clock P. M., Sundays excepted, until all shall have been offered for sale. And on said first Monday in March the treasurer shall proceed to make said sale in conformity with said published notice.

Young v. Ward, 88 Md. 414.

1898, ch. 222, sec. 116A. 1912 Code, sec. 219.

352. After the conclusion of such annual sale, and on or before the first Monday of April next following, the treasurer shall make a full report thereof to the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, sitting in equity, and a copy of the newspaper containing the printed list and notice aforesaid shall accompany the same as an exhibit. Said report shall be made in a substantially bound book, shall give each sale separately, numbered, seriatim, from one upwards, and shall contain, in detail, the proceedings relative to each piece of property sold, especially the description thereof; the name of the purchaser; the price brought; the sum of money received on account of taxes, interest, penalties and costs of sale, and the items thereof; the balance of the purchase money remaining unpaid and payable before delivery of deed; and the original memorandum of sale signed by the purchaser. At the end of said report of sales, and writing in the
