

some national bank, in the name of the County Commissioners of Prince George's County, be designated as "Tax Sale Surplus Fund," be kept separate from the other funds of the county, and be only payable to the persons entitled to the same. A book shall be kept by the treasurer, entitled "Tax Sale Surplus Fund," which shall show the receipts and deposits of said fund, and payment thereof to those entitled to the same.

1898, ch. 222, sec. 116D. 1912 Code, sec. 222.

355. Taxes as collected shall be credited to the respective appropriations of the levy; and the treasurer shall each month make written report to the county commissioners of all moneys received and disbursed by him since his last report.

1904, ch. 459, sec. 116E. 1912, ch. 485. 1912 Code, sec. 223. 1922, ch. 84. 1924, ch. 519.

356. The Treasurer of Prince George's County shall receive in full compensation for the discharge of his official duties as collector of taxes levied for State and county purposes the sum of six thousand dollars ($6,000.00) for each year of his term of office, which shall be payable monthly; and shall receive no other compensation for the collection of any taxes whether for State or county purposes.

1924, ch. 519, sec. 2.

357. The Deputy and clerks in the office of the County Treasurer shall furnish bond in such sums as the Treasurer shall direct conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duty and the County Commissioners shall pay the premium on said bond.*

1902, ch. 331, sec. 116F. 1912 Code, sec. 224.

358. If any real estate liable for taxation is unassessed, or has been unassessed for any previous year or years, or has been so assessed that the assessment was void, it shall be the duty of the assessors for Prince George's county for the time being, at once to value the same and list said property for each year it has escaped taxation, and immediately thereafter report the same to the county commissioners, who shall set a day for considering the same, and putting such property on the assessment books of the county. The county commissioners shall cause notice to be served upon the owner of each piece of such property or his agent, or the person in possession thereof, at least ten days before said assessment of the time, when and place where said assessment will be made, and that the said owner or his representative may then attend and be heard in the premises, and if there be no person found on the property to be assessed, a copy of the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the same; each of said notices shall be returned to said commissioners with the service made endorsed thereon, and be preserved; no property which has escaped taxation shall be liable to assessment and taxation under this section for a period of more than three years prior to the last Monday in March next following such assess-

*Sec. 3, ch. 519, 1924, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.