

both questions, then it shall be the duty of said Board of Election Supervisors to allow such applicant to cast his ballot, and should the answer of the said applicant be in the negative to either of the above questions, then and in that event he shall not be allowed to vote. Should the applicant answer either one of the above provided questions falsely, he shall be guilty of the crime of perjury and subject to the penalties provided by the law of the State of Maryland. The Judges shall provide themselves with a list of the registered voters living within the boundaries of said town, as said list was constituted at the general election of the State last preceding the town election which they have been appointed to conduct. They shall also prepare ballots containing the names of those persons who have complied with the provisions herein specified making them eligible to become a candidate for the office for which they seek. The Mayor and Town Council shall receive all returns of election and determine all questions arising thereunder, but any voter who feels that he has been aggrieved by any ruling as to the eligibility of his right to vote may file an appeal to the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, and the same shall be determined by said Court.

405. The Board of Election Supervisors, provided for under Section 404, shall also act as a Board of Registration. Said Board shall each year after their appointment cause to be made a complete registration of all persons entitled to vote at the town elections, and shall appoint the time and the place of registration and give public notice thereof by advertisement published in at least one newspaper in Prince George's County and also by notice published in at least five public places in said town. They shall arrange for two days of registration, the earliest of which shall be not more than forty days before the ensuing election to be held on the first Monday in July and the last of which shall not be less than thirty days before said election. On said days of registration, it shall be the duty of all qualified residents desiring to vote at the ensuing election to apply for registration, and no person not so registered shall be entitled to vote at said election. It shall be the duty of said Board of Registration and Election to register all citizens of the town of twenty-one years and upwards so applying, who at the time of application may possess the qualifications necessary to entitle them to register as legally qualified voters of the State of Maryland, and who in addition thereto, shall have resided in said town for at least one year immediately preceding such application at said annual registration.

And on the registration days in each and every year, herein provided for, the said Board shall sit, between the hours of 8 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M. for supplemental registration and revision, after giving the notice as hereinbefore prescribed, at which sittings duly qualified voters may register, and the names of any persons on the said books of registration who have removed from the said town or for other reasons are dis-
