1924, ch. 154, sec. 16.

414. It shall not be lawful to sell intoxicants of any kind, in any quantity whatever, except by prescription of attending physician in regular practice, nor to grant or issue, nor cause to grant or issue, any license to sell intoxicating liquors of any kind, in any quantity whatsoever, except by such prescription within the corporate limits of Edmonston; and if any such license be granted or issued in violation thereof, the same shall be void.

1924, ch. 154, sec. 17.

415. The Mayor and Council shall have power to levy, on or before the 30th day of June for each year, the tax commencing the first day of July, taxes at such rates as they may find necessary for anticipated expenses for the coming fiscal year, not to exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation, for the first year, nor more than fifty cents on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation thereafter, based on the State and county assessments for all purposes, and all taxes so levied shall be a lien on any and all property of the person, company or corporation against whom they may be levied, and the taxes for each year are payable on the first day of July next succeeding the levy thereof, and will be in arrears and subject to a legal interest from and after that date.

1924, ch. 154, sec. 18.

416. It shall be the duty of the town treasurer as soon as the annual tax levy is made and placed in his hands for collection to give notice by advertisement in one newspaper published in the county, and proceed to the collection of taxes through the town of Edmonston in compliance with the laws for collection of State and county taxes in Prince George's County.

1924, ch. 154, sec. 19.

417. The Mayor and Council shall have full power to control and protect public grounds owned by the town of Edmonston, whether within the corporate limits or outside of said town.

1924, ch. 154, sec. 20.

418. No ordinance passed by the Mayor and Town Council shall go into effect until after the expiration of thirty days after its passage, unless otherwise provided by the laws of this State. If within thirty days from the date of its passage, a petition protesting against it signed by one-half as many voters as voted at the last general election shall be filed with the
