

time to time thereafter as occasion may require, or upon the call of the chairman; not less, however, than once in every month.

1929, ch. 342, sec. 8.

448. The said Commissioners shall annually appoint a Treasurer who shall also act as clerk for said Commissioners, and who in addition to his or her duties as Treasurer shall keep the minutes of their proceedings in a well-bound book, which shall be open to the inspection of all bona fide residents of said town, and said clerk shall perform such other duties as the Commissioners may assign to him or her.

1929, ch. 342, sec. 9.

449. The Commissioners shall annually appoint one or more bailiffs for said town, who are hereby declared to have and are vested with all the powers of a constable of Prince George's County within the said town limits, and who shall perform such duties as may be required of them by the said Commissioners, and who shall preserve the peace and good order in said town.

1929, ch. 342, sec. 10.

450. The Commissioners shall establish a reasonable salary or compensation for the Treasurer, as well as for other officers or employees of said town. All appointees of the Board of Commissioners shall hold their offices or positions at the pleasure of said Commissioners. The Commissioners may appoint the same person to perform the duties of more than one office.

1929, ch. 342, sec. 11.

451. Before any elective or appointive officer of the said town of Fairmount Heights shall enter upon his or her duties he or she shall make oath before some officer authorized to administer oaths in said Prince George's County that he or she will diligently and faithfully discharge the duties of his or her office and he or she shall file a certificate of such oath with the clerk or chairman of said Commissioners which shall become part of the record of said town.

1929, ch. 342, sec. 12.

452. The Treasurer shall give bond to the Commissioners in such surety or sureties as said Commissioners may require, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office.

1929, ch. 342, sec. 13.

453. The Commissioners may pass such ordinances, not inconsistent with law, as in their judgment may be for the best interest of the town and provide in such ordinance the penalties and punishments for violation thereof; they shall have supervision over the sidewalks, streets, roads and alleys of said town; provide fire protection; pass ordinances to preserve the safety, morals and health of the community, to promote sanitation and