

tration officer or Judge of Election, and an officer making an arrest by direction of any registration officer or Judge of Election shall be protected in so doing as fully as if a warrant had been issued to him to make such arrest, and such registration officers, Judges and Clerks of Election shall be liable to all the penalties now imposed upon registration officers and Judges and Clerks of Election under said general election laws of this State for misconduct on their part in the conduct of any such registration or election.

1920 (Special Session), ch. 3, sec. 2F.

481. All the provisions of the Public General Laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, providing penalties for illegal registration, illegal voting, corrupt practices and requiring reports of the expenditure of money in connection with any election shall be and hereby are made applicable to all elections held under the provisions of this act, and any act done or committed by any person that would be punishable under said general laws if done or committed in a State or County Election shall be punishable in the same manner and by the same penalty if done and committed in any election held under the provisions of this Act. Reports of expenditures of money shall be made under oath and filed with the Clerk to the Mayor and Common Council within five days after each election by all candidates and other persons similar to reports required under said General Laws and such reports shall be open to the inspection of the public.

1920 (Special Session), ch. 3, sec. 2G. 1922, ch. 270, sec. 2G.

482. The Mayor and Common Council shall have full power and authority and are hereby authorized and directed to appoint annually two registration officers for the entire town; to appoint two judges and two clerks of election annually for each of said wards; to fix the pay and compensation of such registration and election officers; to provide books of registration, ballot boxes, ballots and all necessary forms; to fix the polling place in each ward, and, whenever the Mayor and Common Council shall direct a general registration of voters, to appoint for such registration two registration officers for each ward; to give notice of the time and place of holding registrations and elections; provided, however, that not less than seven days notice shall be given; to provide by ordinance or such other, necessary and further regulations not inconsistent with law, for the conduct of registrations and elections and for the manner of making nominations for the offices of Mayor, Councilman and treasurer of said town.

1920 (Special Session), ch. 3, sec. 2H.

483. The Mayor and Common Council shall meet on the Monday following each election held under the provisions of this Act to receive the returns from the Mayor or Chairman of the Council, as the case may be, and to determine and declare the result of the election. The Mayor and Common Council shall be the sole and exclusive Judges of the returns, elections and qualifications of the Mayor, Councilmen and Treasurer and
