

ARUNDEL ON THE BAY.

1898, ch. 349, sec. 1.

120. The inhabitants of Arundel on the Bay, in Anne Arundel County, Maryland, are hereby incorporated and created a corporate body under the name and style of "The Commissioners of Arundel on the Bay," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any court of law or equity whatsoever, may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, and may sell and convey the same for the benefit of said town, and may have and use a common seal, and the same alter at pleasure.

1898, ch. 349, sec. 2.

121. The boundary limits of said Town of Arundel on the Bay, shall be as follows: All that tract of land situate, lying and being in Anne Arundel County, in the State of Maryland, and now called "Arundel on the Bay," recorded among the land records of Anne Arundel County aforesaid, in Liber S. H., No. 37, folio 509, etc., and being the land which, by deed dated September 16, 1890, and recorded among the land records aforesaid, in Liber S. H., No. 37, folio 509, etc., was conveyed by Richard M. Chase to the Chesapeake and Columbia Investment Company.

1898, ch. 349, sec. 3.

122. The legal voters of Arundel on the Bay, who have resided within the corporal limits six months preceding an election, and all persons who own any interest in real estate in said town, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, shall elect by ballot on the last Saturday in July, of each year, commencing the last Saturday of July, 1899, seven Commissioners of the said town of Arundel on the Bay. And until the last Saturday in July, 1899, Louis E. Tayson, Timothy D. Keleher, Nicholas H. Shea, Lawrence Cavanaugh, Thomas W. Smith, James C. Courts and James W. Somerville shall be and they are hereby constituted Commissioners of the said town of Arundel on the Bay. That any form of said Commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The said Commissioners shall meet on the first Saturday in August of each year from and after July, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, and take the oath of office to support and maintain the Constitution and laws of the United States and of the State of Maryland, and to perform the duties of their offices as Commissioners of Arundel on the Bay, to the best of their ability, without fear, favor, affection or partiality. They shall, therefore, choose one of their number as their presiding officer, who shall also act as the executive officer of the said Commissioners and Mayor of the said town of Arundel on the Bay. The said Commissioners shall also choose, not necessarily from among the members thereof, a secretary and treasurer, who shall continue in office during the term for which said Commissioners are elected, unless sooner removed for cause by said Com-
