

1898, ch. 360, sec. 188A. 1912 Code, sec. 341.

571. Each of said justices of the peace, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give to the State of Maryland a good and sufficient bond, with surety or sureties to be approved by the clerk of the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, in the penalty of five hundred dollars, with conditions that he will truly and faithfully, execute and perform all and singular the duties and obligations of the office of justice of the peace, and that he will account for and pay over to the County Commissioners of Prince George's County all fines, penalties and forfeitures, or any portion thereof, which he is bound to account for and pay over to the person or corporation entitled to receive the same, all moneys belonging to such person or corporation which may come into his hands as such justice of the peace.

See secs. 584 and 593.

ACCOUNTING.

1890, ch. 175, sec. 185. 1912 Code, sec. 342.

572. The several justices of the peace for Prince George's county are authorized and required to pay to the county commissioners of said county every three months all money or moneys they may have in hand at such times arising from fines or penalties imposed by them under any law giving them criminal jurisdiction where such law does not provide such fines or penalties shall be paid to any other person or persons, delivering at the same time to the clerk of said county commissioners a written statement over their hand and signatures, setting forth in detail from whom, at what time and on what account the several items thereof were received by them respectively.

See secs. 584 and 593.

1916, ch. 67.

573. The County Commissioners of Prince George's County shall audit or cause to be audited by someone appointed by them at least once in every six months at a compensation not to exceed Fifteen ($15.00) Dollars, all dockets and papers of the Justices of the Peace of the County Court of Prince George's County to ascertain the fees earned by said Justices of the Peace of the County Court, and the amount due the County Commissioners thereof.

FEEES.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 17, sec. 187. 1912 Code, sec. 343.

574. The said justices shall be entitled to charge for their respective services in criminal cases the fees allowed by Article 36, section 22 of the Code of Public General Laws except for each criminal trial they shall be allowed one dollar. Such fees shall be taxed against and paid by the party against whom judgment shall be rendered, unless he or she be discharged therefrom by due course of law; if such parties against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same, such fees shall be paid by