

law and justice demands. Provided that in any case instituted before a justice of the peace in Laurel District of said County, the removal hereinbefore provided for may be made to another justice of the peace in said Laurel District or to an adjoining district, at the discretion of the party or parties making said affidavit or removal.

1924, ch. 303. 1927, ch. 165.

577. In all cases brought before any justice of the peace of Prince George's County, which involve a violation of any municipal ordinance, if after the trial thereof either party, unless being the defendant he has pleaded guilty, may within ten days after said judgment petition the Circuit Court for Prince George's County for a writ of certiorari in such case. Such petition shall set forth the facts upon which the petitioner relies; shall be under oath, and there shall be filed with it certified copies of such ordinance and the docket entries of said justice of the peace. Said Court may, before issuing said writ, require the other party in such case to show cause why the writ should not be issued.

Said Court is hereby given jurisdiction to issue said writ in all cases in which it is satisfied justice requires a new trial, and may require any such case to be certified to it for trial at its then session (if there be a session) of said Circuit Court or the next session thereof, in which event said case shall be tried in the same manner as appeals from justices of the peace are now tried.

If and when any such aggrieved party shall notify the Justice of the Peace that he intends to make an application for a writ of certiorari, the justice of the peace shall take from the accused his recognizance with sufficient surety, conditioned for his personal appearance to answer said charge at the then session (if there be a session) of the said Circuit Court or the next session thereof.

POLICE JUSTICE.

578. The Governor is hereby authorized, empowered and directed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of the State of Maryland, if in session, and without the consent and approval, if not in session, to biennially appoint a Justice of the Peace for Prince George's County at Large, and to designate said Justice of the Peace at Large and so appointed by the provisions of this Act, as "Police Justice."

1927, ch. 426, sec. 2.

579. The said Police Justice as provided for in this Act, shall be a resident and registered voter of Prince George's County, and who, before he acts as such shall give bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) with a surety or sureties to be approved by the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, conditioned that he shall well and faithfully discharge, execute and perform, all and
