

cases heard and tried by him during the preceding month, stating in each case the name of the plaintiff and defendant in civil and criminal cases, the offense charged, the name of the person upon whose complaint the warrant is issued, the number of witnesses summoned, the name of the officer serving the warrant and summons, the judgment rendered, the amount of the fine or penalty imposed, the amount of costs taxed, which shall include all constable's or sheriff's fees, if any, and the amount of the fine and costs collected by him, and shall at the time of making said report pay over to the County Commissioners all such fines, civil and criminal, as well as costs enumerated in said report, and thereupon the said County Commissioners shall deposit the sum or sums so turned over to the credit of Prince George's County.

587. In the event of the temporary absence of said Police Justice, any one of the Judges of the Circuit Court for Prince George's County shall designate and appoint for the time being one of the other Justices of the Peace of the County to act in his place and stead in his absence; who shall for the time being be clothed with all the power and authority and subject to the same duties and responsibilities as the said Police Justice, and before acting as such he shall give bond in the penalty of one thousand dollars ($1,000) as hereinbefore provided for the Police Justice, with the same conditions, uses and purposes; and shall receive the same pro rata compensation and expense account as is provided herein for the Police Justice, the same to be paid by the County Commissioners and deducted from the salary and expense account of the said Police Justice. And in the event of death, removal, resignation or permanent disability of said Police Justice the Governor shall appoint and designate some other person possessing the necessary qualifications for the residue of said term for which said Police Justice had been appointed, with the same salary and expense account, with the same duties and obligations as required herein of the Police Justice.

588. In all criminal prosecutions or proceedings before said Police Justice in which he has jurisdiction, it shall be his duty in the event of conviction to impose the fine or fines and punishment prescribed in such case by the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, if the same be in violation of a State Law, or that prescribed by the Public Local Law, if it be in violation of a public local law, or that prescribed by ordinance of any incorporated town in Prince George's County if the same be in violation of any such ordinance. The said Police Justice shall have the right to issue summons for the attendance of any witness or witnesses in any case under consideration by him, and upon the failure of any person to attend before him in response to summons at the time and place mentioned in said summons, any such person or persons shall be liable in the discretion of the Police Justice, to a fine not exceeding five dollars ($5) for such non-attendance in response to such summons, which fine shall be collected
