

as other fines are collected, and in default of payment thereof, by commitment to the Prince George's County Jail for a period not exceeding five days, provided the proof shows that a written or printed notice of said summons was duly served upon the said witness in person by some one duly authorized under the law to summons witnesses in such cases. That the said Police Justice shall have the right to preserve order and decorum while sitting in his office in the discharge of his duties, and shall have the right to punish any breach of order or decorum committed in his presence when acting in his capacity as Police Justice by a fine not exceeding ten dollars ($10), to be collected as other fines are collected, and in default of payment thereof, by commitment to the Prince George's County jail for a period not exceeding ten days, provided in all cases where a fine is imposed under this section, the party upon whom said fine was imposed, if he feels aggrieved thereby, may within ten days, exclusive of the day on which the fine was imposed, appeal to the Circuit Court of Prince George's County from the action of said Police Justice, and pending hearing of said appeal, shall give security for his appearance in the Circuit Court for Prince George's County in the sum of twice the amount of the fine so imposed, which security may be furnished by the deposit of the amount so named in cash with the said Justice as collateral for his appearance to prosecute said appeal.

589. The County Commissioners of Prince George's County shall appoint some suitable person as Clerk of the Police Court for Prince George's County at a salary not to exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500) per annum, payable monthly by the County Commissioners, and in addition thereto the sum of three hundred dollars ($300) per annum as an expense account, payable monthly by the County Commissioners, and he shall receive no other fee or compensation whatsoever for any services in connection with his duties as said Clerk. That the term of office of the Clerk of the said Police Court shall be for two years, to begin contemporaneously with that of the Police Justice in the year 1927; and the County Commissioners shall biennially appoint thereafter a Clerk of the Police Court. That said Clerk before entering upon his duties shall execute a bond similar to that required of the Police Justice in the penalty of five thousand dollars ($5000), and for the same use and purpose. That said Clerk shall be present with the said Police Justice and shall attend the sittings of his Court during the session thereof, and shall have charge of all the records, dockets and papers of said Court, and he shall have power and authority to administer oaths in all matters that appertain to his Court, he shall keep and transcribe the records of said Court, and shall issue all writs of said Court in the name of the Police Justice, and shall have power to accept such cash collateral and deposit of sureties for the appearance of any defendant, to appear before the said Police Justice for hearing or trial, and shall issue all witness certificates, and shall receive all fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed or collected by virtue of any writ issued out of said Police Court. That
