

fact by causing notice thereof to be posted in three conspicuous places in said town, or by notice published in a newspaper or newspapers published in said town, or both, which said notices shall state that the assessment books will be open for inspection on three evenings from 7.30 o'clock to 10 o'clock, at the City Hall within three weeks from the date of said notice. And if any owner of any property so assessed shall feel aggrieved by said assessment he may appeal to the Mayor and City Council, which is hereby constituted a board of final appeal and equalization of said assessment, within fifteen days from the last inspection day. The said Mayor and City Council may make such deduction from and addition to the assessments made by the board of assessors as may to it seem reasonable and just for the purpose of equalization. They may also remit taxes when the same have been illegally imposed. And the said assessors shall each receive for their services such reasonable compensation as may be fixed by the Mayor and City Council. It shall be the duty of the treasurer, during the month of April in each and every year in which there is no general assessment, to assess all improvements and new property, not assessed at the last general assessment, and report the same to the Mayor and City Council, which shall have the power to revise the lists and the same general powers as heretofore conferred in cases of general assessments.

TAX LEVY.

1912, ch. 695, sec. 223.

633. The said Mayor and City Council shall, during the Month of May, in each and every year, levy the taxes authorized to be levied by law, and shall deliver to the collector their warrant for the collection thereof, and such taxes shall thereupon be collected as herein provided.

1912, ch. 695, sec. 224.

634. The said Mayor and City Council shall have power to levy and collect taxes in the town, not exceeding for general purposes in any one year, twenty cents on each one hundred dollars of assessable property and shall also levy the taxes required to meet the interest and redeem all bonds heretofore legally issued, all of which taxes shall be levied during the month of May in each and every year. The taxes so levied shall be due and in arrear on the first day of October succeeding their levy.

1912, ch. 695, sec. 225.

635. A levy of not over two cents on each one hundred dollars' worth of assessable property may be made annually for the purpose of equipment for the Fire Department.

1924, ch. 193.

636. The Mayor and City Council of Laurel is hereby authorized and empowered to levy an additional tax, for general purposes, of not over or
