

1917 (Special Session), ch. 13, sec. 5.

707. Every person who shall directly or indirectly keep or maintain by himself or by associating with others, or who shall in any manner aid, assist or abet in keeping or maintaining any club house, or other place in which any intoxicating liquor is received or kept for the purpose of use, gift, barter, or sale, or for distribution or division among the members of any club or association by any means whatsoever, or who shall maintain what is commonly known as the "locker system" or other device for evading the provisions of this Act, and every person who shall use, barter, sell or give away, or assist or abet in bartering, selling or giving away any liquors so received or kept, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof be subject to the penalties prescribed in Section 708 of this Article; and in all cases the members, shareholders, associates or employees in any club or association mentioned in this Section shall be competent witnesses to prove any violations of the provisions of this section of this Act, or of any fact tending thereto; and no person shall be excused from testifying as to any offense committed by another against any of the provisions of this Act by reason of his testimony tending to criminate himself, but the testimony given by such person shall in no case be used against him.

The keeping or giving away of intoxicating liquors, or any schemes or devices whatever, to evade the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed as unlawful selling within the provisions of this Act.

1917 (Special Session), ch. 13, sec. 6.

708. If any person or persons, house, company, association, club or body corporate, shall violate any of the provisions of the preceding sections within the limits of Prince George's County, he, she, it or they shall, upon conviction thereof, for the first offense forfeit and pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars or imprisoned in the County Jail or the Maryland House of Correction for not less than thirty days nor more than six months; or both so fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the Court. And upon conviction thereof for the second and each subsequent violation, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars and imprisoned in the County Jail or confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than three months nor more than one year.

1917 (Special Session), ch. 13, sec. 7.

709. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons within the limits of Prince George's County to advertise or give notice by signs, bill boards or otherwise for himself or another of the sale or keeping for sale of alcoholic liquors or to circulate or distribute any price-lists, or order blanks advertising liquors or to publish any newspaper, magazine, periodical or other written or printed papers in which such advertisements or notices are given or to permit any such notices or advertisements of intoxicating liquors (including billboards) to be posted upon his premises or premises
