

by the justice of the peace; and in every such case the appeal shall be taken within ten days after judgment entered.

1917 (Special Session), ch. 13, sec. 10.

712. In all prosecutions under this Act, by indictment or otherwise, it shall not be necessary to state the kind of liquor sold; nor to describe the place where sold; nor to show the knowledge of the principal to convict for the acts of an agent or servant; nor to state the name of any person to whom liquor is sold, but it shall be sufficient to state that the act took place in Prince George's County. The issuance of an internal revenue special tax stamp or receipt by the United States to any person as a wholesale or retail dealer in liquors or in malt liquors at any place within Prince George's County after November 1, 1917, shall be prima facie evidence of the sale of intoxicating liquor by such person at such place, or at any place of business of such person within such territory where such stamp or receipt is posted, and at the time charged in any suit or prosecution under this Act; provided, such time is within the life of such stamp or receipt.

1917 (Special Session), ch. 13, sec. 11.

713. Any justice of the peace in and for Prince George's County, upon information made under oath or examination that any person is manufacturing, selling, offering or exposing, keeping or storing for sale or barter, contrary to law, any intoxicating liquors, or that the affiant has cause to believe and does believe that such liquors are being manufactured, sold, offered, kept or stored for sale or barter in any house, building or other place named therein, contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall issue his warrant requiring the persons suspected to be arrested, and the said home, building or other place to be searched, and the parties found therein to be arrested and brought before him as aforesaid, and in such warrant shall require the officer to whom it is directed to seize and hold all liquors found in such house or building, and also vessels, bar fixtures, screens, glasses, bottles, jugs and other appurtenances apparently used in the sale, keeping or storing of such liquors contrary to law.

1917 (Special Session), ch. 13, sec. 12.

714. If, upon examination of such person, it shall appear to such justice that there is probable cause to believe him guilty of the offense charged, the accused shall be required to enter into a recognizance, with sufficient securities, in the sum of not less than five hundred dollars ($500.00) to appear before the next term of the Circuit Court of Prince George's County to answer an indictment if one be preferred against him; and upon his failure to enter into such recognizance, the justice shall commit him to jail to answer such indictment. All material witnesses may also be required to enter into a recognizance with or without securities, as such justice may deem proper, to appear before the Grand Jury at the next term of said court and such justice shall require the accused to give bond with sufficient security in the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00), conditioned that he will not violate any of the provisions of this Act during
