

the time intervening between the date of such bond and the adjournment of the next Court; and upon his failure to give such bond, the justice shall commit him to jail until such bond be given or until he be discharged therefrom by due process of law.

1917 (Special Session), ch. 13, sec. 13.

715. Whenever intoxicating liquors shall be seized in any room, building or place which has been searched under the provisions of this Act, the finding of such liquors in excess of the quantity permitted by this Act in such room of a United States retail liquor dealer's tax receipt therein shall be prima facie evidence of the unlawful selling and keeping and storing for sale of the same by the person or persons occupying such premises, or by any person named in any such United States tax receipt posted in such room or his associates, agents or employees thereunder, and the proprietor or other persons in charge of the premises where such intoxicating liquors were found, or who is so named in such United States tax receipt, and his associates shall be subject to trial on the charge of selling or keeping or storing for sale unlawfully such intoxicating liquors, and upon his conviction the intoxicating liquors found upon said premises shall at once be publicly destroyed by some responsible person to be appointed by the Court.

1917 (Special Session), ch. 13, sec. 14.

716. The payment of the special tax of liquor dealers to the United States for any person or persons other than druggists within the limits of Prince George's County, shall be prima facie evidence that such person or persons are engaged in keeping, selling, offering and exposing for sale, intoxicating liquors contrary to the provisions of this Act and a certificate from the collector of internal revenue, his agents, clerks, or deputies showing the payment of such tax and the name or names of persons or persons, if any associated with the person to whom such tax receipt is issued shall be sufficient evidence of the payment of such tax, and of the association of such persons for the selling, keeping, offering and exposing for sale of liquors contrary to the provisions of this Act in all trials or legal inquiries.

1917 (Special Session), ch. 13, sec. 15.

717. The Sheriff of Prince George's County, or one of his deputies, or one of the constables of said county or any officer having constabulary powers shall have reasonable cause to believe that any persons are handling, carrying or bringing into Prince George's County spirituous liquors in quantity exceeding one quart or malt liquors in quantity exceeding twelve pint bottles for any purpose whatsoever contrary to the provisions of this Act, it shall be the duty of said Sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable or officer to arrest such person, which arrest may be made without warrant, if the offense is committed in the presence of such officer, and seize his baggage and take him before some justice of the peace in and for said county, and if the arrest was without warrant to make against him the charge of pos-