

otherwise improved, they may order the same paved or improved, and the amount expended in paving or improving the same, and the expense of collecting the same from the owner of the property fronting thereon in proportion to the amount expended in front of the said property by suit against the owner, and the amount expended in such payment or improvement, and the collection thereof, shall become a lien upon the property chargeable therewith.

1898, ch. 349, sec. 26.

145. The said Commissioners may erect or establish a jail, house of correction, hospitals or pest houses outside of said town, and pass ordinances regulating and governing the same, and may acquire property necessary for said purposes.

1898, ch. 349, sec. 27.

146. The said Commissioners shall have full power and authority to establish in said town of Arundel on the Bay such free school or schools as may be found necessary, and may pass such ordinances as may be required for the proper conduct thereof; provided, that for any school or schools so established, the State or county shall be at no expense for erection or maintenance of same.

1898, ch. 349, sec. 28.

147. The said Commissioners shall have full power to construct and keep in repair all necessary drains and sewers, and to pass such regulations as may be necessary for the preservation of the same, and may authorize any person appointed by them to enter upon the lots, grounds and possessions of any person or body politic through which said sewers or drains may pass, and regulate, make or repair the same; and may pass such ordinances as they may deem proper for the protection of the same, and fix penalties for the violation thereof. The cost of constructing, opening, enlarging or strengthening any sewer in any street or alley or through any private property shall be chargeable to the property adjacent thereto.

1898, ch. 349, sec. 29.

148. The said Commissioners shall have power to establish or cause to be established such reservoirs, dams, tanks and other means of storing water, and to authorize the laying of such mains, pipes or other conduits, as may be required in constructing the same, and regulate the charge for the same.

1898, ch. 349, sec. 30.

149. The said Commissioners shall have the power to establish or cause to be established, suitable and necessary building or buildings, machinery and appliances for furnishing electric lights and power within the said town of Arundel on the Bay; and the said Commissioners are authorized to pass such ordinances as may be necessary for the maintenance and conduct of such street lights.